Questions, Corrections and Contact

Numerous sources have been used in compiling these records, and BHRDCA Heritage is always interested in new information, questions and corrections wherever possible. This document is a living one and will be updated whenever new information comes to hand.

It is the view of BHRDCA Heritage that individual club records should be used as a more accurate point of reference against those records found in newspapers – which form the bulk of the information found within this document – scorebooks and annual reports are considered the ultimate source of truth.

Notes: -

1. This document does not replace any previous work, in particular the Box Hill Reporter District Cricket Association Centenary book compiled by BHRDCA Life Member Michael (Mike) Dwyer, which was published in 1994 to mark what was then recognised as the Association's Centenary.
2. After the Association's Centenary celebrations in 1994, BHRDCA Heritage uncovered that the association was formed in September 1890 and therefore records date from 1890-91 onwards, with reference to historical records from the 1880's.
3. During the period 1893-94 to 1897-98 there was no formal competition. Clubs would arrange matches between themselves and clubs outside of the 'Reporter' catchment. Despite this, the Reporter continued to report extensively on these matches. Available individual records are included.
4. The Eastern District Cricket Association, which played from 1898-99 to 1900-01 has been included in these records. Although this association was not sponsored by the Reporter newspaper, it was extensively reported on by the Reporter and the clubs within formed the backbone of the future Reporter competition that reformed in 1902-03.
5. In many instances, individual player averages (eg. period 1945 to the early 1970's) – where the primary source is newspaper records - will in most cases be recorded as better than what they were. This is due to the nature of records found in that the newspaper records would only record the better batting or bowling performances in each round, ultimately making a player's batting average inflated or the bowling average lower than what it really was. Since the early 1970's more Scorebooks and Annual Reports are available, making these records more accurate.

Introduction

This document has been created to list the detailed statistical highlights and records of the Box Hill Reporter District Cricket Association (BHRDCA) to the end of the 1985-86 season.

Prior to 1933-34, the BHRDCA was known as the Reporter District Cricket Association which was originally formed in 1890-91 and has played continuously since 1902-03. Even today, the competition is still often referred to simply as 'Reporter'.

Sources

Newspapers & BHRDCA Records

Records before the mid 1950's were sourced from information recorded in local newspapers, mainly the Reporter newspaper, which was based in Station Street, Box Hill. This included match scorecards, match summaries, Association Annual Reports, Club Annual Reports along with association and club averages.

Where the Reporter did not record details, additional records were sourced from either The Age (via Google Age archives) or The Argus newspapers (via Trove) with the Blackburn & Mitcham Reporter used as a third source. This Blackburn & Mitcham Reporter was produced from September 1931 to July 1945 and was a localised off-shoot of the main Reporter newspaper that focussed on the immediate Box Hill area – a Doncaster version was also printed for a period. In August 1945, the Blackburn & Mitcham Reporter changed its name to the Nunawading Reporter and was used as an additional source from 1945-46 to 1964-65.

From the mid 1950's, the Doncaster Mirror was used from 1957-58 to 1972-73, while newspapers such as the Eastern Post have also been reviewed. Since 1965-66, research has centred on the Nunawading Gazette as copies of each weekly issue are kept at the Nunawading Library and easily accessible.

Whilst leading individual batting and bowling averages were recorded in the newspaper, in particular the periods from 1903-04 to 1915-16; then 1919-20 to 1927-28; the bulk of the detailed averages were produced manually by noting individual performances for every game found. Averages published in newspapers did not include finals games (confirmed by manual checking) – these have been added to all records.

BHRDCA Annual Reports from 1930-31 to 1949-50; 1958-59 to 1982-83 have been found and copied from records kept by individuals or those found at the Whitehorse Historical Society based at Deep Creek Road in Mitcham. There were also lists of batting and bowling averages (those who qualified) in the BHRDCA annual reports from the mid 1960's – these listings did not include finals matches – and these were also manually added to all records as completed with earlier records.

The Box Hill Reporter District Cricket Association Centenary book has been used as a reference point throughout this exercise. This was published in 1994 to mark what was then recognised as the Association's Centenary.

For clubs that have provided access to scorebooks dating back to the early 1950's, their individual player records are more detailed.

All these records compiled may differ from individual club records and will be investigated further if records do not match, with individual club records taking priority and corrections subsequently made.

This detailed research helps in linking players, families and clubs together and determining where clubs had changed their name and where mergers had occurred that were not otherwise noted in other sources investigated.

Future Updates

Subsequent updates will focus on a few areas.

Corrections and updates to records from 1890 to 1985-86.

Expansion of the 1890 to 1985-86 history summary section.

The feasibility of combining / adding in records from 1986-87 to 2007-08. This will include Club details, Premierships and Award winners.

A second document has been created that covers the period 2008 to current. This document includes competition, club and individual records extracted from My Cricket before it was replaced by Play HQ. This document is updated after each season, and the desire is to eventually join the two historical documents together.

Special mention is given to Peter White, who sadly passed in August 2021. Peter was an enthusiastic supporter of the BHRDCA Heritage committee and was a major contributor to the 125th anniversary celebrations held in February 2015.

Also, special mention to Ian Scholefield who was a valuable source of information over recent years and provided contact to many other historians. Ian was also one of my proof-readers and offered many improvements to my work. Ian passed suddenly in October 2024.

And Mike Dwyer, who passed only recently in September 2025. Author of the BHRDCA Centenary book and BHRDCA life member, Mike was always a keen supporter of the BHRDCA Heritage. It's interesting to remember that Mike wrote the BHRDCA Centenary book with no internet, no emails and with limited focus on club histories compared to what we have now.

Greatest Teams

Fred Watson's greatest team – 1945 to 1990

Fred Watson was an umpire in the BHRDCA from 1945 to the early 1990's. Fred officiated in his 600th match in October 1989. At the time he selected his greatest ever team: -

Len Williams (Mitcham)
Jack Davin (Mitcham)
Norm Mullens (East Burwood)
Bruce Arthur (St. David's)
Keith Read (Doncaster Footballers)
Trevor Hutchins (Blackburn and Nunawading)
Athol Reed (Box Hill Methodists)
John 'Jack' Foster - wicketkeeper (Box Hill Methodists)
Don Meehan (Blackburn)
Tom Elmi (East Burwood)
Tom Reeves (Nunawading)
Bruce Lindsay – 12th Man (East Burwood)

Fred had the 'best seat in the house' and it's hard to argue with his selected side.

Association Names

The BHRDCA was referred to as the 'Reporter' competition before settling under its current title in 1933-34. As John Toogood has reminded me on several occasions, there is no 'and' in BHRDCA. It is the Box Hill Reporter District Cricket Association – although many still call it simply 'Reporter'.

BHRDCA Grades (1890-91 to 1985-86)

From 1890 to the mid 1960's the BHRDCA kept a simple grading format of A, B, C and D grades before splitting C, then B grade into 1 and 2. With the introduction of Shield Grade in 1973-74 the BHRDCA implemented a tiered structure from 1977-78 with promotion and relegation moving clubs first, second and even third XIs between the tiers. The tiered structure started to be phased out from 1987-88.

- ✿ 1910-11 B Grade introduced.
- ✿ 1925-26 C Grade introduced.
- ✿ Mid 1920's to early 1930's B and C Grade would be split into two different sections, with the top two sides from each section making up the final four of respective grade.
- ✿ 1935-36 C Grade split into C Grade Section I and II, with premierships awarded for each Section.
- ✿ 1950-51 D Grade introduced.
- ✿ 1963-64 C Grade split into C1 and C2 Grade
- ✿ 1966-67 B Grade split into B1 and B2 Grade
- ✿ 1969-70 A Grade becomes A1 Grade with the introduction of an A2 grade.
- ✿ 1971-72 D Grade split into D1 and D2 Grade. D2 grade was not used in every season.
- ✿ 1973-74 Shield Grade introduced.
- ✿ 1974-75 Shield Grade Reserve introduced exclusively for Shield Grade second XI's
- ✿ 1977-78 Shield Grade formally named the Ray McIntosh Shield. McIntosh Shield 2nd and 3rd grades introduced for Shield Grade second and third XIs. The Wooden Spooner of McIntosh Shield Grade would be relegated to the A grades along with their second and third XIs, regardless of their performance.
- ✿ 1977-78 A1 and A2 Grade changed to exclusively second tier clubs first and second XIs. The winner of A1 grade would see their first and second XIs promoted to Shield Grade.
- ✿ 1979-80 B1 and B2 Grade changed to exclusively third tier clubs first and second XIs, with top-up from McIntosh Shield Grade Fourth XIs if needed.
- ✿ 1981-82 A3 Grade introduced for exclusively second tier clubs third XI's. This grade was not used in 1985-86.

BHRDCA Best Player

At the conclusion of the 1980-81 season the BHRDCA Committee of Management struck the "TOOGOOD MEDAL" in honour of then President Len Toogood. It is awarded annually to the Fairest & Best player (as recorded by the standing Umpires) throughout the Home & Away season in the Association's Premier grade.

Named in honour of Len Toogood, BHRDCA Life Member (2001-02), from the Blackburn North (ex. Meadow) Cricket Club, a 50 Year playing member, who held the position of BHRDCA Vice President for two seasons from 1975-76 to 1976-77 and then President of the Association for six terms from 1977-78 until 1982-83.

What if BHRDCA Heritage went back and nominated who would have been named the best player in each season?

On review of each season, I have determined each winner by performing a 3,2,1 analysis of each game to determine the winner. An enjoyable exercise as I was able to remind myself how good some of these players were.

1890 to 1902

The following excerpts taken from the 'Reporter Newspaper' – with thanks to Stephen Flemming.

14 Aug 1890 "Local News".

A meeting was held at the Railway Hotel, Box Hill, on Friday evening last, to consider the question of competing for a trophy in that district. The following clubs were represented, viz.: Surrey Hills, Norwood (now known as Ashburton), Doncaster, Blackburn, Box Hill, Mitcham, Ringwood and Ferntree Gully. The Lilydale and Canterbury clubs were not represented, though invited. Mr. Meader Jnr was elected chairman, and after explaining the purpose of the meeting, Dr. Showman proposed that the clubs compete for a trophy during the forthcoming season, which was carried unanimously.

After considerable discussion as to forming an Eastern District Junior Cricket Association, the delegates accepted the kind offer of Mr. Bright, of this paper, to contribute a trophy to the value of £5 5s, to be known as the "Reporter Trophy". As the various clubs have not yet held their annual meetings, it was decided to adjourn until Monday 1st September 1890, when all clubs desiring to enter for the competition must send their delegates and the matter pushed on with. It is evident that considerable interest will be taken now as something has been found wanting to promote friendly rivalry amongst the clubs, and this paper is of the opinion that their offer will meet the case.

Friday August 29, 1890 "Reporter Trophy"

In order to encourage cricket in this district, the proprietors of this journal have decided to give a trophy, to be played for by the clubs in the district. In order to decide upon what conditions, the trophy will be competed for, a meeting of the delegates, two from each club, will be held at the Railway Hotel, Box Hill, on Monday evening, when all the details will be arranged, it is to be hoped, in a satisfactory manner. The trophy is now vested in the hands of the delegates; therefore, it is to be hoped that all the club delegates in the district will be represented.

Friday September 5, 1890 "Reporter Trophy"

The adjourned meeting of the delegates in connection with the above was held last Monday Night at the Railway Hotel, Box Hill. Mr. W. Meader Jnr¹. In the chair. The clubs represented were Blackburn, Box Hill, Canterbury, Mitcham and Ringwood. The Burwood Club wrote stating that they will be unable to play. It was decided that each match be of two days duration and be played on the point system. It was also decided that Mr. Jno. (John) Toon¹ be the hon. Secretary of the trophy committee, and that all clubs pay an entrance fee of 10s 6d. The subcommittee is to consist of the secretaries of the local clubs competing. The rules under which they play were agreed upon, and the final arrangements will be made on Wednesday evening next at 8 p.m. at the Railway Hotel, Box Hill, when all clubs intending to compete must be represented by their delegates.

¹William Meader and John Toon were both playing with Box Hill

Friday September 12, 1890 "Reporter Trophy"

The delegates from the clubs intending to compete for the above trophy met at the Railway Hotel, Box Hill, on Wednesday evening and arranged the preliminary details. Mr. W.K. Vail, of Surrey Hills, has promised a trophy of £3 3s for the runners up. The permits were drawn, and the matches will be played on the ground of the first named club.

Box Hill Reporter District Cricket Association Inc

What happened to the affiliations of Ferntree Gully, Lilydale and Norwood was not recorded with Ferntree Gully, in season 1913-14 & 1914-15 the only later affiliate of these three clubs. Lilydale went onto to be part of the Lilydale District Cricket Association which eventually became part of the Ringwood and District Cricket Association.

Although not at the 5 September 1890 meeting, both Surrey Hills and Doncaster confirmed their participation before the start of the inaugural season.

Some of the firsts from the 1890-91 season included: -

Round 1 G.Bullen (Doncaster) takes the first 7-for; Sid Sneesby (Blackburn) takes the first 10 wickets in a match.

Round 2 M.Cronin (Mitcham) makes the first fifty, carrying his bat for 70 not out.

Round 5 D.Wilson (Surrey Hills) takes the first hat-trick.

Round 9 Dave Hadlam (Mitcham) takes 10-45 in an innings.

The 1890-91 premiership was won by Box Hill who finished on top of the ladder. At the completion of the season they were challenged by Burwood's President, Mr.W.Gilmour to a match to determine which club could be proclaimed champions of the eastern suburbs. Burwood eventually won in a match that lasted six days finally ending on 30 May 1891. W.Hurrey made 134 not out for the winners.

The competition continued for two more seasons, undergoing a name change each time (The "Gilmour Trophy" in 1891-92 and the "Eastern District Cricket Association" in 1892-93). The competition expanded with Boroondara, Burwood and Camberwell all entering sides, and a second division was formed in 1892-93, known as the "Montgomery Trophy". Burwood won the premiership in 1891-92 with Box Hill coming from 115 runs behind on the first innings to defeat Boroondara in 1892-93.

But in the winter of 1893, the land boom of the 1880's collapsed and the depression of the 1890's took immediate effect. When competition cricket went into recess the local clubs went back to organising their own fixtures which were still reported on by the Reporter newspaper, who would publish scores, match summaries, AGMs, and club averages. In 1895 both East Burwood and Vermont played their first matches.

It wasn't until 1898-99 when Phil Plaisted from the Box Hill Cricket Club organised surrounding clubs to enter the "Eastern District Trophy" with the competition reported on extensively by the Reporter newspaper. This competition lasted for three years and included a junior division until a recess in 1901-02 when the clubs could not agree on certain matters such as the fixture and sponsorship of a trophy. It then reformed in 1902-03 and has continued uninterrupted since.

Canterbury won premierships in 1898-99 and 1899-1900, while Kew won convincingly in 1900-01 which was their only season in the competition. Canterbury displayed their dominance winning all three junior trophies held during this period. E.Watsford made 201 for Camberwell in 1899-1900, while future Reporter legends in Harry Swan, Wally Boyle and Sid Mackie made their debuts.

Another legendary player to feature in the 19th century was Tom Mackie who made his debut for Canterbury in 1887 (although it is believed he played for 'Balwyn' earlier in the mid 1880's). By 1901, Mackie had taken 382 wickets for Canterbury, and he continued playing through to 1920.

Several other players dominated the competition in the period before 1902. This included Sid Sneesby from Blackburn who made 902 runs and took 176 wickets in 1889-90. William Meader started with Box Hill before leaving to coach Doncaster in 1892-93. Returning to Box Hill in 1895, Meader continued to be a leading player in the competition until deciding to miss the last day of the 1898-99 season to play golf with friends. This resulted in Meader never playing again after 2312 runs and 409 wickets with the two clubs. Box Hill's James Steele was the highest run-scorer from the 1890's with 3272 runs with a highest score of 104 not out. Another leading player with Box Hill was Phil Plaisted who made his debut in 1893 and made 2528 runs and took 287 wickets until his last season in 1903-04.

There were two bowlers from Box Hill who dominated the competition during the 1890's. Paul Schober took 239 wickets from 1889-90 to 1892-93 including best bowling of 9-36 and match figures of 16-59 against Doncaster. His last game was the 1892-93 grand final where he made 63 and took 9 wickets to ensure Box Hill's win. The second was Johnson Strangward who took 256 wickets including 90 wickets in 1898-99 with match figures of 16-37 in the same season.

1902-03 to 1914-15

In mid-September 1902 the Reporter newspaper announced that it was to reform its own association which was in direct competition to the "Eastern District Trophy". But, due to the late notice only four clubs played in the Reporter competition – with most clubs having already committed to the other competition. Box Hill, Old Mitcham, Ringwood and Surrey Hills played each other twice in a series of six three-day matches, with Surrey Hills beating Old Mitcham by five runs in the 1902-03 Grand Final.

The following extract appeared in the "Sporting Globe" in December 1934.

In 1902 Mr. Edward Hodges, proprietor of The Reporter Newspaper, Mr O. Walker, Mr. W. Kennedy and Mr. J. Tully (re)formed the Reporter Cricket Association. Mr. Hodges guided the destiny of the Association over the following 25 years.

In 1903-04, the Reporter competition went from four teams to ten with Blackburn, Camberwell Congregationals, Canterbury, Doncaster Heights, Mitcham District and St. Barnabas all joining the competition. The "Eastern District" competition subsequently folded without these clubs and the Reporter's support. Nine rounds were played, with seven three-day games scheduled. Box Hill and Old Mitcham both won seven matches outright and the rules allowed for a play-off. But the home and away season finished 23 April 1904, and the competition had run out of time and an available venue to hold a grand final, so the premiership was shared between the two clubs. Players such as George Gunner (Surrey Hills), Lou Barelli (Mitcham), Jack Plumb (Doncaster based clubs) and John Tully (Doncaster) made their debuts. Wally Boyle (Old Mitcham) made 838 runs including scores of 155 and 213 not out in the last two matches.

The Camberwell Congregational joined the Eastern Suburbs Cricket Association in 1906, also fielding teams in the Southern Cross Matting Association. From 1921 they fielded a side in the Camberwell District Churches competition to 1924 before joining the Eastern Suburban Churches competition in 1928–29. They won premierships in 1934–35 (B grade) and 1935–36 (A grade) before combining with Wyclif during WWII. Operating independently from 1946–47 to 1949–50 they won a second A grade premiership in 1947–48. In 1950–51 they amalgamated a second time with Wyclif to become Camberwell Wyclif Congregational again before the club dropped Camberwell from the name in 1955–56. This is the same Wyclif that joined BHRDCA in 2014.

The club included two brothers with incredible records. Doug Robinson played 280 matches from 1928 to 1955 and is recorded with 10,342 runs, 30 centuries and 469 wickets. Jack Robinson played 250 matches from 1933 to 1955 and is recorded with 9,216 runs, 22 centuries and 364 wickets.

Includes details extracted from 'A Century of Cricket'

Edward Hodges was appointed President in 1904–05, a role he filled until 1920. Nine rounds were played, and the undefeated Surrey Hills won the premiership from Mitcham District despite the efforts of A.Goodall who made 449 runs and took 85 wickets for Mitcham District. The 30-run win by Surrey Hills over Mitcham District in round three proved the difference. The competition also awarded a minor trophy to those teams who filled the lower rungs of the ladder, with St. Barnabas winning this award. Both Canterbury and Box Hill fielded their first XIs in the Boroondara Electorate competition with Box Hill defeating Rosstown to take the premiership. Phil Plaisted and James Steele were members of the victorious Box Hill side. Other highlights during the season was 173 not out by C.Vains for St. Barnabas and fifteen-year-old Lou Barelli who made 127 for Old Mitcham against East Burwood. Box Hill dismissed East Burwood for 7 with a full side in an innings that lasted thirty minutes. Les Britt Snr and members of the Bullen families made their debut this season for Doncaster.

By 1905–06 matches were starting at 3pm and finishing at 6pm, with an extra half hour added in the summer months. Outright wins were worth four points and drawn matches two points – with a first innings win gaining two points. With nine matches played over three Saturdays per round the better sides had no problem securing full points, but it was a long season, starting 7 October 1905 and ending 21 April 1906

Surrey Hills joined Canterbury and Box Hill in fielding teams in the Boroondara Electorate competition. Despite this the Reporter grew with Templestowe and Ringwood joining. After an acrimonious split three years earlier Old Mitcham and Mitcham District buried the hatchet to join forces in 1905–06 and Mitcham duly won the premiership winning eight games to second placed Doncaster who won six matches. A.Goodall enjoyed another excellent season with 392 runs and 66 wickets which included 183 and match figures of 10-10 against East Burwood. In the same match Mitcham won by a record margin of an innings and 413 runs after posting 8-475. Fifteen-year-old Paddy Gilchrist started his career with Blackburn this season along with Doncaster legend Cedric Crouch while Templestowe joining saw the introduction of Joe Beale and the Chivers' family to the competition.

Harry Hughes joined Doncaster Heights from Hawksburn in February 1906 and was to become the dominant player in the competition over the next three seasons.

Mitcham (with Paddy Gilchrist who left Blackburn after round one) joined the Boroondara Electorate competition in 1906–07 which opened the door for Doncaster to step into the void as the leading club in the competition, but with Harry Hughes Doncaster Heights had a player who could match all-comers. Despite losing the last game of the season against Doncaster, the Heights finished a game ahead on top to win their only A grade flag. In a fixture of seven three-day games meaning the season finished in late March, Hughes made 643 runs and took 55 wickets. Hughes made four centuries with scores of 165 not out, 155, 106 and 105 not out and in the first three games took 27 wickets. Ringwood's E.Armfield won the bowling average with 32 wickets which included match hauls of 13-51 and 13-52.

The Boroondara Electorate competition folded in 1907, and this meant that Box Hill, Canterbury and Mitcham returned to the Reporter association. Two Sections were formed between the eleven sides with Box Hill entering an A and B side. In a ten-round season, Camberwell and Canterbury finished equal top in Section A with Camberwell winning the play-off. Camberwell then defeated Section B winner Templestowe to take the 1907–08 premiership in their only season in Reporter. Their leading player was R.Holland with 393 runs and 85 wickets. Canterbury's Harry Swan made 649 runs and took 42 wickets alongside Tom Mackie who took 71 wickets while Harry Hughes made 625 runs and took 69 wickets for Doncaster Heights. There was debate during the season when Doncaster's Jack Plumb was selected in front of Mitcham's Lou Barelli for the representative game against the Melbourne Cricket Club while the Surrey Dive swimming carnival held in January 1908 was the biggest annual event in the district.

District cricket commenced in 1906–07 with two grades, but after two seasons the Victorian Cricket Association decided to form the Victorian Sub District Cricket Association (VSDCA) for the second-tier clubs in 1908-09. Camberwell immediately left Reporter for the VSDCA after installing a turf wicket. Surrey Hills returned to the competition in 1908–09 and they were joined by Canterbury Methodist and Warrandyte. It took two attempts for Warrandyte to be admitted and there were always concerns over the traveling distance involved in playing at Warrandyte. By now the Reporter newspaper was publishing full scorecards in the weekly editions.

There were two sections of six teams playing ten rounds in 1908–09. The competition changed the points system with three points for an outright win, two points for a first innings win, but a team would lose the same points if they were on the wrong side of a result meaning the bottom side would be a healthy negative points score.

Paddy Gilchrist returned to Blackburn from Mitcham, and they went through the home and away season undefeated with Gilchrist taking 66 wickets. Although Canterbury Methodist won more games than Blackburn, they finished second in Section B and Canterbury won the right to play Blackburn in the grand final after leading the Section A table. Led by Sid Mackie's 63 not out and nine wickets from Harry Swan, Canterbury won the premiership by 61 runs. Swan made 350 runs and took 59 wickets for the season while Mackie made 537 runs. Doncaster Heights' Harry Hughes continued to dominate with 867 runs and 64 wickets. Hughes made 215, 171 and 96 during the season. Another highlight was Mitcham posting 7-430 against Box Hill with Fred Matters becoming the first player to score two double hundreds in the competition and he ended the season with 611 runs. Canterbury Methodist went even better with 4-479 against East Burwood to win by an innings and 377 runs. E. Watsford made 186.

For the 1909–10 season the competition expanded to sixteen teams with Croydon, Koonung and Mooroolbark joining the competition and a number of clubs entering second XIs with St. Barnabas withdrawing. Although Croydon and Mooroolbark were further than Warrandyte there was little objection to them joining as they were on the Lilydale train line. The association split the sixteen teams into four geographical divisions – North, South, East and West – with six matches of three days duration. The top sides would then play semi-finals, with the winners going through to the grand final.

Camberwell's³ third XI had entered the competition but withdrew without playing a game after round three as they could not secure a ground while Harry Hughes left Doncaster Heights in January 1910 after he was transferred by his employer (ES&A Bank) to Carlton. Mitcham was fielding an all-star line-up completed by the return of Wally Boyle from South Melbourne and went through the season unbeaten along with Canterbury despite Sid Mackie and Harry Swan playing with Camberwell's VSDCA side. In round three Mitcham posted the highest score in BHRDCA history (to 1976) with 4-592 against Croydon to win by 561 runs. Dudley Boyle made a competition record 216, Bill Kennedy 163 and Paddy Gilchrist 99.

Canterbury fought hard to defeat Doncaster in one semi-final while Mitcham thrashed the much-improved East Burwood with Paddy Gilchrist taking 12 wickets in the match. Mitcham then dominated the grand final against Canterbury to win by an innings with Wally Boyle making 209 and Lou Barelli taking 11 wickets for the game. Dudley Boyle was the leading batsman with 522 runs while Paddy Gilchrist took 59 wickets and Joe Beale from Templestowe 55 wickets along with D. Cameron from Canterbury's second XI.

St. Barnabas reformed in 1921–22 and became a mainstay of the Eastern Suburban Churches competition. They were the most successful club in that competition with 24 premierships including 11 in A grade. They dominated the competition from 1979–80 winning three successive A grade flags from 1979–80 to 1981–82, then four successive A grade premierships from 1993–94 to 1996–97. The club won ten A grade premierships from 1979–80 to 1996–97 and eighteen in all during this period. They secured access to a turf ground in 1997 and joined ESCA. Upon merging with North Balwyn Combined in 2019–20 they are now known as the Balwyn Saints.

A formation club of the VSDCA, Camberwell won six VSDCA championships before merging with Collingwood in 1996–97 to form the Camberwell Magpies and entering district cricket. Camberwell fielded their lower XIs in ESCA from 1939–40 and won fourteen premierships until the merger.

The competition decided to do away with the two geographical zones in A grade and a B grade was introduced in 1910–11 with two premierships awarded as a result. The Doncaster Ramblers and Wonga Park were new to the competition while Box Hill and Ringwood returned. Finals were removed from the fixture and A, and B grade were both fixtured for fourteen two-day matches meaning the season finished in May 1911. Rob Brown made his debut for Blackburn.

Mitcham started slowly but recovered to win the A grade premiership on percentage from Canterbury. Paddy Gilchrist missed the first nine games but returned to take 36 wickets and win the A grade bowling average. At the opposite end of the ladder, East Burwood won the wooden spoon for the fifth time in six seasons. Wally Boyle made 632 runs while Stan Rogerson made 585 runs and took 42 wickets for Box Hill. Another all-rounder to impress was J. Bidstrup from Surrey Hills with 394 runs and 71 wickets while stalwart Tom Mackie took 66 wickets for Canterbury.

B grade was won by the rapidly rising Templestowe, who finished eighteen points ahead of Croydon. Joe Beale was the dominant player in the grade with 252 runs and 93 wickets. Against Mooroolbark he took 8-2.

Leaving the Reporter in 1911, Mooroolbark played against local sides until joining the Ringwood District Cricket Association in 1920–21. After winning A grade in 1921–22, they did not win a top-grade flag until their first Lindsay Trollope Shield (f. the Chandler Shield) in 1971–72, Mooroolbark have won nine top grade flags in all with their last premiership in 2010–11

The competition continued with fourteen two-day games in 1911–12 with two grades and the season ending 4 May 1912. Templestowe were promoted to A grade while East Burwood were relegated, and Ringwood withdrew at Christmas. Templestowe fielded a strong side with the Beale, Cashen and Chivers families forming the bulk of the team. They won A grade by two points, holding off Mitcham due to more outright wins. Templestowe had only lost one game over the past two years and had won B grade, then A grade in successive seasons. Despite 676 runs from Wally Boyle at Mitcham, it was a bowlers' season, Paddy Gilchrist made 215 runs and took 72 wickets for

Mitcham, while Joe Beale made 212 runs and took 64 wickets for Templestowe. Doncaster's Arthur Hardidge took 76 wickets and Canterbury's Tom Mackie 67 wickets. Mackie took 10-50 against Doncaster.

Bowlers dominated B grade. Archie Crouch from Doncaster Heights became the first bowler to take 100 wickets in a season with an even 100. Charles Rasmussen took 98 wickets for Templestowe's second XI and Stan Rae took 86 wickets for Croydon. Cam Johnston from the Doncaster Ramblers made 688 runs and was the only batsman to average over 20. Croydon won the premiership by one point from the Doncaster Ramblers. In the season decider, Croydon was 9-29 against the Ramblers when time ran out, had they lost the Ramblers would have won the flag. In an even grade, the bottom four sides all won four games each.

The sinking of the Titanic on 15 April 1912 received full coverage in the Reporter newspaper which still made room to provide full scoresheets of the round thirteen matches.

After finishing top two in 1911-12, Croydon and the Doncaster Ramblers were promoted to A grade in 1912-13, with the Ramblers changing their name to East Doncaster. Canterbury did not enter a side to focus on their ESCA team, while Ringwood entered a side in B grade after withdrawing from A grade in 1911-12.

Both grades enjoyed another full season of fourteen rounds, meaning there were 28 playing days, but no finals. The points system continued with negative points for losses. A side in the mix for the premiership would suffer a six-point turnaround with a close loss.

It took until round fourteen for Surrey Hills to seal the A grade premiership with a desperate one wicket win over Mitcham who charged home in the last half of the season to finish third with Doncaster finishing in second place. Wally Boyle made another 691 runs for Mitcham while Lou Barelli made 607 runs. Barelli also took 62 wickets while Paddy Gilchrist took 76 wickets at 4.66 for Mitcham and Arthur Hakes took 67 wickets for Doncaster. Blackburn's Rob Brown took 61 wickets.

Templestowe's second XI lost one game and won the B grade premiership by a whopping twenty points, Charles Rasmussen led the way with 66 wickets for the premiers.

The 1913-14 season saw the introduction of one grade, comprised of three sections with ten rounds. The top team from each section would then play finals along with the best placed second team overall. Twenty teams entered with Ferntree Gully, Glen Waverley and Vermont joining the competition. Canterbury Methodist⁴ returned after four years, while Canterbury re-entered after missing 1912-13. The struggling Koonung changed their name to West Doncaster in the hope this would improve their fortunes. Templestowe were the only club to field two sides in the competition.

There was some player movement with Paddy Gilchrist moving to Ferntree Gully from Mitcham after striking an agreement with the football club. (Gilchrist has played VFL with Collingwood). Ferntree Gully were a formidable side with Gilchrist, George Williams and Len Smith in their team. Bill Allen had left Blackburn to join Ringwood who started their rise up the ladder due to his dominant role in the side.

The biggest bombshell of the season occurred after round one. The Mitcham football club was having a disagreement with the Reporter football competition over the contested result of the 1913 grand final loss to Ferntree Gully and the dispute escalated. As a result, the cricket club withdrew their side for the rest of the season in support of the football club, such was the bad blood between the entities. Mitcham had finished top two in the past four seasons, and it was a major blow to the competition to lose one of its premier clubs.

Templestowe's first XI and Surrey Hills dominated A section with both going through to the finals. Templestowe's second XI finished on top by a clear 22 points in B section while Ferntree Gully's win over Ringwood in round seven was the difference in them reaching top spot in C section. Despite Len Smith's 12 wickets and 90 from Paddy Gilchrist, Surrey Hills defeated Ferntree Gully in one semi-final, while Templestowe first XI defeated Templestowe second XI in the other. Surrey Hills went on to take the flag by 45 runs over Templestowe who rued their dominance over the past four years by missing this opportunity.

Ted Leach was superb for Surrey Hills in the finals with scores of 82, 57 and 40 and ended the season with a dominant 804 runs along with 58 wickets. Others had fine seasons with Templestowe's Joe Beale (423 runs and 70 wickets), Doncaster Heights Cedric Crouch (82 wickets), Ringwood's Bill Allen (417 runs and 52 wickets), Blackburn's Robert Brown (73 wickets) and Ferntree Gully's Paddy Gilchrist with 74 wickets.

Following their departure in 1914, the Canterbury Methodist reappeared in the Camberwell District Churches competition in 1921-22. The were part of the first clubs to be part of the Eastern Churches competition in 1925-26. The club had periods where they didn't field a side and after entering teams until World War II, re-appeared briefly in the last 1940's and returned fully in 1960-61. Fielding a team mainly in B2 grade, the club had little success and folded after the 1968-69 season.

Joining the competition in 1909-10, Koonung played without success in their five years. A change of name to West Doncaster in 1913-14 did little to improve their efforts and they folded after that season.

Despite their recent efforts Templestowe withdrew both their sides for the 1914-15 season while Mitcham folded after leaving at the start of the 1913-14 season. Canterbury Methodist withdrew for the second and last time. West Doncaster also folded after the previous season. With Mitcham not returning, Lou Barelli joined Paddy Gilchrist at Ringwood – after the latter left Ferntree Gully. The Boyle brothers had moved to Vermont. Sixteen teams were entered with Blackburn fielding two sides.

The season started with two division with the intention that all clubs would play for four spots in the finals. The points system was changed so that losing teams were not deducted 3 points for an outright loss, or 2 points for a first innings loss. But at Christmas, the Reporter committee decided that there would be no finals after all, and clubs would be split to play for A and B grade premierships. This meant that stronger clubs like Ferntree Gully and Vermont were playing in the B grade which was considered the lower standard overall. The fixture was re-done, and fourteen rounds were scheduled with the last days play 1 May 1915.

Ringwood won their first A grade premiership, winning the last ten games to finish four points clear of Surrey Hills. Paddy Gilchrist was at the height of his powers and won the batting award with 683 runs and the bowling award with 137 wickets from 389 overs. Gilchrist took five wickets in an innings on sixteen occasions during the season. Doncaster's Arthur Hardidge took 86 wickets. An up-and-coming star in Len Bullen made 589 runs for Doncaster.

The highly fancied Ferntree Gully were pipped by 1 point by Croydon, who won their second B grade flag. In the last round Croydon needed to defeat Wonga Park outright to jump over Ferntree Gully and Croydon declared both their innings in a rain affected game to win outright, with rain denying Ferntree Gully a chance to defeat Doncaster Heights.

B grade was dominated by some fine players. George Williams made then Reporter record 910 runs for Ferntree Gully, while Dudley Boyle made 880 runs for Vermont which included a record eight half-centuries. Cedric Crouch made 688 runs and took 59 wickets for Doncaster Heights, while Wally Boyle made 552 runs and took 69 wickets for Vermont. Arthur Smith from Croydon took 74 wickets.

Arguably the outstanding effort came from Ferntree Gully's Len Smith who took 87 wickets in nine games from round six. Smith took five wickets in an innings on twelve occasions which included efforts of 9-18, 9-28, 9-40 and 7-8. Against East Doncaster, Smith took match figures of 14-90.

A dominant club from the outer eastern suburbs of Melbourne, Ferntree Gully was formed in the early 1880's and played with the competition for two years from 1913-14 to 1914-15 and could be considered unlucky not to win premierships in both years.

Ferntree Gully resumed playing arranged matches after World War I in 1920-21 and then affiliated with the Ringwood District Cricket Association (RDCA) in its second season: 1921-22. The Club switched affiliations between the RDCA (1921-22 – 1926-27, 1934-35 – 1935-36 & 1939-40 – 1942-43) and the Mountain District Cricket Association (MDCA – 1933-34 & 1936-37 – 1938-39) a few times in the inter war years. It recessed 1927-28 – 1932-33 when a dispute with the RDCA went unresolved and was amplified by the onset of the Depression and then again during World War II for the 1943-44 season, before re-affiliating with the RDCA from 1944-45 – 1946-47.

In 1947-48, the Club became a founding member of the Ferntree Gully Cricket Association (now FTGDCA), where it remained until 1992-93, when after a dispute with the FTGDCA, it affiliated with the RDCA from 1993-94 – 2004-05. With the pressure of travelling distances (exceeding 45 minutes to some grounds) and facing a loss of numbers and strength in junior ranks, the Club returned to the FTGDCA in 2005-06 where we remain affiliated today.

By October 1915 World War I was into its fifteenth month, the AIF was still holding on at Gallipoli and soldiers had yet to be sent to the Western Front. Despite the war, there were still enough clubs and players to run a two-grade competition with fourteen teams, with Blackburn fielding two sides.

A grade played fourteen rounds with no finals in a the 1915-16 season that ended 6 May 1916. Ringwood won twelve games to finish five points ahead of Templestowe to take out their second flag in succession. At the opposite end of the table, Box Hill only won one game but were considered to have improved, but after six wins in three seasons needed a revival.

It was another astonishing season by Paddy Gilchrist that led Ringwood to their second consecutive flag. Gilchrist provided almost identical numbers to his 1914-15 season with 684 runs and 135 wickets. Gilchrist took five wickets in an innings on a record eighteen occasions and ten wickets in a game on six occasions. In round three, Gilchrist made 201, then took 5 for 31 and 6 for 26 against East Burwood. Then in round eleven he made 101 and took 8 for 3 and 7 for 27 against Blackburn finishing with 15 for 30 for the match. He also took 13 for 26 against Box Hill in round one. Over two years, Gilchrist made 1367 runs and took 272 wickets for Ringwood before he enlisted at the end of this season.

Others to enjoy good seasons included stalwart H. Edgoose with 614 runs for Blackburn and Richard Tainton who made 497 runs and took 40 wickets for East Burwood.

Unlike A grade, B grade was fixtured with ten rounds and a final series. East Doncaster took out their first flag with a six wicket win over Vermont. Len Bulleen made 102 and 43 for the winners, supported by Bert Bullen with 7-33. Dismissing Vermont's Wally Boyle cheaply was crucial to the result.

Len Bullen made 739 runs for East Doncaster, while Bert Bullen made 422 runs and took 49 wickets. Dudley Boyle made 544 runs for Vermont and C.H. Watts took 71 wickets for Blackburn, but it was the performance of Wally Boyle that broke all records. Boyle set the Reporter record for most runs in a season with 1005 runs along with 59 wickets. From December Boyle made scores of 83, 80, 147, 87 not out, 128 not out and 166 not out for Vermont.

This was the final season in Reporter for Croydon, Wonga Park and Glen Waverley. All three clubs continue to perform strongly more than a century later.

The Croydon cricket club was formed in 1886, and they played in the Lilydale Cricket Association and there is mention of Croydon playing against Blackburn in 1889. In 1905, Croydon moved to Halls Ground off Mt. Dandenong Rd and they joined the Reporter in 1909-10 and played with this competition until 1915-16, winning B grade premierships in 1911-12 and 1914-15.

After World War I Croydon was a founding member of the Croydon District Cricket Association in 1919-20, before being superseded by the Ringwood and District Cricket Association in 1920-21. They played with that competition until 1965-66 when they joined ESCA. Croydon was then admitted to Sub District in 1974-75.

Box Hill Reporter District Cricket Association Inc

In 1983-84 Croydon defeated Sunshine to win their only VSDCA championship.

The most games for Croydon since joining VSDCA is 258 matches by Brent Kremer to the 2019-20 season. Alex Hales made 223 against Bayswater in 2008-09

One of the more southerly clubs in the region Glen Waverley played from 1913-14 to 1915-16. After WWI they joined the newly formed Burwood District Cricket Association in 1922-23 and won two A grade premierships in their ten years. In 1961 they changed their name to Waverley and joined ESCA from 1962-63 to 1986-87, while their top two sides joined the VSDCA for the 1964-65 season. The club joined the district cricket competition in 1974-75.

In 1989 Waverley merged with Hawthorn. In 1994, the Waverley contingent amalgamated with Dandenong, but the name quickly disappeared. By 2003, the remainders of the Waverley club merged with Monash University who now play in the ECA.

The Wonga Park Cricket Club was formed in 1910-11 and played in the Reporter competition until April 1916. Unlike their closest neighbour, Warrandyte, there was no concern raised at association level over the distance required to travel to Wonga Park. Whereas Warrandyte had to justify their place in the Reporter on an annual basis until finally being 'forced' out after 1934-35.

Wonga Park did not achieve any great success in the Reporter. In all they won 14 games and lost 51 with only one win (over Koonung) in their first two seasons. In 1910-11, Wonga Park lost nine games by an innings. They improved a little over the subsequent four seasons and won three of the first four games in 1913-14 but never finished higher than second last.

Fred Topping was Wonga Park's leading identity before WWI and was likely to have been captain. Topping had previously played with Warrandyte before joining Wonga Park in 1911-12. The clubs' leading player was E. Collyer, who in a struggling side, took over 35 wickets in five successive seasons, whilst brothers H. and E. Burch offered Collyer support with the ball.

After WWII they joined the local Croydon competition before joining Ringwood District Cricket Association in 1920-21 where they continue today. They won the top-grade premiership in both 1974-75 and 1975-76.

Wonga Park CC celebrated its centenary in 2010-11 and continue to be one of the bigger clubs in the Reporter competition along with a strong Veterans program that won two Saxon Shield premierships in 2016-17 and 2018-19.

By October 1916, World War I had been going for two years and showed no sign of ending with opposing sides facing each other in the trenches of the Western Front and making little progress. By now the Reporter competition was impacted with the competition reduced to four teams (Blackburn, Box Hill, Canterbury and Surrey Hills) with two clubs entering teams after the start of the season in Vermont and Warrandyte. Ringwood withdrew before the season started while the northern clubs from the Doncaster area, along with Croydon and Wonga Park did not contemplate entering.

Paddy Gilchrist had enlisted, as had Reporter Secretary Mr. L. Game. The competition committee decided to 'suspend' play for the 1916-17 season, meaning no trophy was available¹⁰, but the clubs who entered would play for a pennant. Ten rounds were fixture along with finals.

BHRDCA Heritage consider matches and individual performances during the War periods part of competition records.

With clubs going into hiatus players such as Les Britt (Doncaster) along with A.E. Jones and George Williams from Ringwood and a contingent of Templestowe players like Claude Hunt, Charles Rasmussen, Syd Mullens and Leo Fitzsimons all went to Box Hill.

Blackburn finished on top of the ladder with eight wins, with Vermont and Warrandyte both missing finals after their late start. Blackburn lost the semi-final and Canterbury proved too strong for Box Hill with Bill Lachlan making 44 and 65 for the winners in the grand final. Box Hill's Claude Hunt had an exceptional final series with 7-18, 5-21 and 6-33 in the final series and ended the season with 45 wickets after starting in round six.

Wally Boyle dominated the batting with 609 runs and 33 wickets for Vermont from eight games. This included 96 and 12 for 21 against Warrandyte. Canterbury stalwart Tom Mackie took 51 wickets and Blackburn's Richard Tainton took 48 wickets and made 258 runs. Billy Lachlan made 403 runs for Canterbury.

Vermont pulled out of the competition in 1917-18 with Doncaster and Templestowe returning with one side each. Wally and Dudley Boyle moved to Canterbury but only played two matches, while Box Hill lost their contingent of Doncaster and Templestowe players who returned to their clubs.

The competition originally scheduled fourteen rounds, but prior to round eleven decided to play a final series with three-day semi-finals and a grand final decider. Doncaster started the season slowly but with five wins finished third behind Templestowe and Canterbury. Lou Barelli joined Cedric Crouch, Les Britt, Len Bullen, Bert Bullen and Jack Plumb at Doncaster and the club was in the box seat. Doncaster duly won their first flag, defeating Canterbury by seven wickets at Surrey Park (which was the permanent Grand Final venue at the time). Cedric Crouch took match figures of 12-80 while Lou Barelli took 7-16 in the semi-final win over Templestowe.

Bill Lachlan made 461 runs and took 34 wickets for Canterbury. Cedric Crouch took 56 wickets for Doncaster.

By the start of the 1918-19 season, World War I was concluding which it did in November 1918. Seven teams entered the competition with Ringwood returning, Warrandyte withdrawing and Canterbury electing to field its teams in ESCA. Doncaster were able to field two sides although Lou Barelli returned to Ringwood to join Bill Allen.

Box Hill Reporter District Cricket Association Inc

There were eleven rounds with a final series to decide the premiers.

Ringwood started unconvincingly but finished equal ladder leaders by the end of the season with Templestowe. Both Templestowe and Ringwood won their semi-finals with Lou Barelli taking 9-59 against Blackburn for Ringwood. But Ringwood was dismissed cheaply in the grand final and with Templestowe's W.Bond (117 not out) and Leo Fitzsimons (64 not out) batting Ringwood out of the match they conceded defeat. That Bill Allen missed the third day due to VFL commitments with Melbourne did not help the cause.

With 408 runs and 53 wickets, Bill Allen was the leading player in the competition. Richard Tainton made 402 runs and took 39 wickets for Blackburn.

By 1919, the world was returning to normality, although the Spanish flu was proving as deadly as the War, although Australia's toll was a lot less than other countries.

1919-20 to WWII

1919-20

The 1919-20 season started 11 October 1919 which clashed with the VFL grand final. Fourteen teams entered the competition which was split into A and B grade, with fourteen rounds fixtured for A grade and ten games plus finals scheduled for B grade.

Mitcham reformed and returned to the competition after withdrawing early in the 1913-14 season. Canterbury fielded their second XI in ESCA, while Box Hill and Doncaster fielded teams in both A and B grade with the Doncaster B grade side considered a junior team.

A number of clubs that played with the Reporter before WWI did not return. This included Croydon, Mooroolbark and Wonga Park who were all part of the newly formed Croydon District Cricket Association.

Reigning premiers Templestowe lost their leading batsman in W.Bond as he returned to Heidelberg. C.Lilley left Blackburn to return to Prahran. Bill Allen went to East Melbourne but returned to Ringwood after Christmas and made a startling impact in the second half of the season joining Paddy Gilchrist who had returned from active service. Templestowe's Ernie Mullens made his debut this season with Ray McIntosh playing every game for Doncaster.

Ringwood were holders of the Reporter Shield and were aiming for their third A grade flag which meant retaining the Shield for perpetuity if they won. At Christmas they were 3 wins and 3 losses, but Bill Allen returned and with Gilchrist dominated the competition as they won six games outright in succession. Such was their dominance, after their round thirteen win over Mitcham, the season was called off one round early and the Shield¹¹ awarded to Ringwood. (All premierships were decided by grand finals after this season).

Bill Allen made 358 runs and took 57 wickets in seven matches after Christmas, but this paled to Paddy Gilchrist who made 481 runs and took 95 wickets in another incredible season, although his performances declined as Allen took control. Against Doncaster, Gilchrist took 10-45 in the first innings and match figures of 16-54, both of which were new competition records to the time. In the three seasons he played for Ringwood, Gilchrist took 367 wickets. Blackburn's Robert Brown took 66 wickets for a team that finished second last.

Another record was set which stood for 57 years, that being S.B.Gravenell's 238 for Box Hill against Surrey Hills – only equalled by Trevor Hutchins in the 1976-77 grand final.

Led by 596 runs and 85 wickets from Claude Hunt, East Doncaster won the B grade premiership over Templestowe who forfeited on the third day of the grand final when they could see their cause was lost.

1920-21

Although the Croydon association was formed in 1919-20, the clubs involved were keen for Ringwood to come across and play in the local competition which was named the Ringwood and District Cricket Association (RDCA). After three premierships in the Reporter, Ringwood made the move and took the Reporter Shield with them – which they still possess. They adopted a new name, calling themselves the Ringwood Imperials. They were joined by Croydon, Montrose, Mooroolbark, Ringwood Diggers and Wonga Park.

Formed in 1901 and based at the Ringwood Recreation Reserve where Eastland is now situated, Ringwood had won the 1914-15, 1915-16 and 1919-20 A grade premierships and with Bill Allen and Paddy Gilchrist had dominated the competition. On moving to the Ringwood association Ringwood lost Paddy Gilchrist to North Melbourne, but Bill Allen continued to be a force at the club for several more years.

Changing their name to the Ringwood Imperials they won three flags in the 1920's and changed their name back to Ringwood c.1930.

Ringwood became one of the dominant clubs in the eastern suburbs in the 1950's, winning six consecutive RDCA A grade premierships from 1951-52 to 1956-57. A turf wicket was installed at Jubilee Park, and Ringwood duly won ESCA A turf premierships in 1959-60 and 1960-61.

The club then joined the Victorian Sub-District competition in 1964-65 before being accepted into District (later Premier) cricket in 1974-75. Ringwood won District Premier Grade premierships in 2007-08, 2008-09 and 2014-15.

After the disappointing end to the 1919-20 season, the Reporter decided to play grand final for all grades from now on. Twelve clubs joined with Box Hill, Blackburn and Templestowe fielding two teams across A and B grade. Surrey Hills were going to field a second XI, but they pulled that team out. East Burwood returned to the competition with Richard Tainton returning to that club from Blackburn. Reigning B grade premiers, East Doncaster were invited to join A grade but declined. The Nunawading Diggers joined the competition with a team made up of returned servicemen.

1920 marked the end of E.F.Hodges tenure as President, a role he filled for sixteen years. The Reporter affiliated with the Victorian Junior Cricket Union in 1920.

The season started 2 October 1920 which clashed with the VFL Grand Final for a second season. After eleven rounds the season finished 12 March 1921 followed by finals with the A grade Grand Final played at the main Surrey Hills ground which was regarded as the best cricket ground in the district. B grade Grand Finals were played at either Blackburn or Mitcham. Player movement included Paddy Gilchrist who did not follow Ringwood to the new association and left to play district cricket with North Melbourne. Blackburn's Bob Brown joined Camberwell (who had installed a turf wicket) while Claude Hunt left East Doncaster to play at Box Hill.

In round three, Cedric Crouch took match figures of 15-82 for Doncaster against Blackburn, but it was in vain as Doncaster was dismissed for 5 in their second innings with nine ducks and two byes. Crouch top-scored with 2. Despite this Doncaster scrambled to fourth position by the end of the season. After beating Templestowe by 1 run in the semi-final, they defeated Box Hill outright by three wickets in the Grand Final with an eighth wicket stand of 35 in a low scoring game securing a remarkable victory. Box Hill were disappointed to lose the services of Fred Finch who took 28 wickets in the first five games but then left to join district club Northcote.

Cedric Crouch took 87 wickets in A grade while Templestowe's Sylvester Mullens made 557 runs and Wally Boyle 548 runs.

The B grade premiership was won by Warrandyte over Blackburn. Templestowe's Ben Rhodes took 41 wickets in four games including 10-45 against East Burwood.

1921-22

At the initial meeting held 13 September 1921, the Reporter determined that the season would consist of two grades of ten and eight teams, who would play each other once before a final series. At a subsequent meeting the season was extended to eleven rounds for both grades with 3-day semi and grand finals played in April 1922 and the season finished 1 May 1922.

A grade was extended to ten teams with the entry of Balwyn and the promotion of East Burwood. B grade was joined by new club St. Andrews who were based at Box Hill Gardens behind the St. Andrews Presbyterian church on Whitehorse Road. Balwyn, Blackburn, Box Hill and East Burwood all fielded second XI's while the B grade reigning premiers, Warrandyte, stayed in B grade.

The association decided to start the season on 1 October 1921, but this clashed with the VFL Grand Final and local football for the third year in a row and Canterbury and Surrey Hills argued that it was a week before the start of the ESCA season and Mitcham advised the did not have access to their ground. In the end, the Reporter delayed the season by one week.

Locally the Camberwell District Churches Cricket Association formed this season and included St. Barnabas and Wyclif. The ESCA (formed in 1902) included clubs such as Deepdene, Kew, Tooronga along with the Canterbury and Surrey Hills second XI's. Ferntree Gully joined the Ringwood association.

A feature of this season was the representative games. At Xmas, the Reporter entered the Under 25 carnivals and played against associations such as ESCA, Essendon Churches, and Southern Suburban. C. Smart from Surrey Hills took 22 wickets in four matches. On ANA Day, Reporter played Ringwood. Bill Allen made 71 for Ringwood and Wally Boyle made 77 for the Reporter.

Canterbury defeated Templestowe by 7 wickets to win the A grade flag. Sid Mackie belted 926 runs for the season including a score of 168 when he hit eighteen sixes. East Doncaster thrashed Warrandyte to win B grade with Claude Hunt taking 24 wickets for 64 in the final series.

It was a bowler's season in A grade with J.P.Campbell (Canterbury) taking 67 wickets, Charles Rasmussen (Templestowe) taking 62 wickets and Joe Beale taking 59 wickets for Templestowe. B grade followed suit with P.Glennon (80 wickets) and Bert Crouch (65 wickets) dominating for Doncaster Heights. William Colman took 74 wickets for Warrandyte. Canterbury legend Tom Mackie retired after thirty seasons and 895 wickets. Mackie had started with Balwyn in the 1880's.

Before the finals the Reporter played a representative match against the MCC which included Australian Captain, Warwick Armstrong.

At a representative game played on Wednesday 29 March 1922, the MCC made 426 with Australian captain, W.W. Armstrong making 107 before retiring, Sandford 100 retired, whilst Stan Rodgers (ex-Box Hill) made 95 – Doncaster's Cedric Crouch taking 5-102. The RDCA was captained by P. Cashen from Templestowe and reached 99 in their first innings and 4-94 in their second. Armstrong took 5-65 for the MCC in their first innings.

1922-23

Mr.H.Kent was elected President for the second season with Ben Broadbent acting as Secretary. Kent donated 15 pounds of which a portion was to go to hosting the annual representative game against Ringwood. Kent also hoped that players selected would make themselves available for the game. Two new clubs joined the competition in Auburn and Box Hill ANA (Australian Natives Association). 22 teams entered the competition with ten in A Grade and twelve teams split into two divisions in B grade. At the end of the ten round home and away season, the top two teams from each B grade section would play off in a final series. B grade did have its flaws with East Doncaster two sides playing each other during the season. Balwyn, Blackburn, Box Hill, Canterbury and Templestowe were also fielding two sides and there were now sixteen clubs in the Reporter competition.

The Burwood District Cricket Association commenced in 1922-23 with East Burwood leaving the Reporter to join with Burwood, Mount Waverley, Glen Waverley, Middel Burwood and the short-lived Darling District. Darling District was replaced by Burwood second XI after they forfeited two games and lost three by an innings. On 24 February 1923 Richard Tainton (180) and Ted Tainton (100) added 259 for the first wicket in 115 minutes for East Burwood against Burwood. Another competition that was around at this time was the Boroondara Electorate which included clubs such as Box Hill KSP, St. Peters, Box Hill Stars, The Avenue and St. Mary's. It is believed that St. Peters is the same club that joined the Reporter a couple of years later.

Canterbury's leading bowler from 1921-22 in J.P.Campbell was unable to play this season due to business commitments (returning briefly at the end of the season), but his loss was filled by Harry Swan. With Box Hill ANA joining the competition, Fred Linden started his thirty-year career with the association.

It was an inauspicious start to Box Hill ANA's tenure, dismissed for 10 and 12 by fellow new club Auburn in their first game.

The A grade premiership was won by Box Hill who thrashed Canterbury by 317 runs in the Grand Final. A second innings score of 404 – led by Arthur Jones' 140 in his last game for Box Hill led them to victory. The final series was dominated by Fred Weise (18 wickets in the two finals) and William Rodgeron (17 wickets in the two finals). The leading wicket-taker for the season was Harry Swan with 61 wickets.

Box Hill became the first club to win two premierships in the same season with a comfortable win over East Doncaster in the B grade Grand Final. B grade was dominated by Warrandyte's William Colman who made 468 runs and took 90 wickets. Warrandyte finished top of the ladder, but in a surprising result lost the semi-final to East Doncaster. Claude Hunt led East Doncaster to the Grand Final with 67 wickets but left the competition after this season when he moved to Wantirna.

1923-24

The new season commenced with eight teams in A grade and 13 teams in B grade, split into section 1 and section 2. The Reporter considered entering a C grade but elected to stick with the current format. Blackburn became the first club to field a third XI while the two East Doncaster sides were both put into section 1 and played each other twice in the season. Ten rounds were fixtured followed by a final series that ended 3 May 1924.

Auburn withdrew from the Reporter after one season and joined ESCA where they became one of the most successful clubs in the area. Mitcham withdrew from the competition for a second time. Lou Barelli went to Doncaster while Wally and Dudley Boyle moved associations to join East Burwood in the Burwood association.

Auburn spent one season with the Reporter before joined ESCA in 1923-24. Success took some time, but Auburn embarked on an incredible run from 1938-39 to 1950-51, winning eight A Grade Matting premierships which included four in a row from 1947-48 to 1950-51. Auburn then won a ninth A Grade flag ten years later. They only ever fielded one team in a region flooded with clubs and in 1974-75 they changed their name to Hawthorn Auburn but folded two years later.

Les Britt moved from Doncaster back to East Doncaster while ex VFL footballer Maurie Sellars joined Box Hill. Journeyman William Colman moved to Blackburn from Warrandyte so he could play A grade. Frank Boyles made his debut for Blackburn and was to a major part of the Meadow CC early years in the 1950's.

The Reporter continued with their representative games, drawing with Ringwood on ANA Day, and losing to Richmond soon after. Their best effort was defeating the mighty MCC with a full-strength side by three runs – 214 to 211. Led by Surrey Hills' George Gunner, the side included Templestowe's Ernie Mullen (74), Harry Swan (27 and 4-48) and Doncaster's Cedric Crouch who took 5-56.

In 1923-24, Canterbury won the A grade premiership by chasing down Blackburn's target of 168 with Harry Swan belting 100 not out, Swan also took 7 wickets for the game. This was Blackburn's first A grade Grand Final. In B grade, Box Hill thrashed Canterbury by 231 runs with J.Vaughan making 95 and R.Daniels taking eight wickets.

The leading players in A grade both came from Canterbury with Harry Swan (77 wickets) and Billy Lachlan (563 runs) leading the way to the flag. In B grade R.Daniels from Box Hill made 482 runs and took 58 wickets. Warrandyte's Les McCulloch took 15-35 against East Doncaster

The Reporter continued with the A and B grade structure in 1924-25, with B grade sections split more evenly than previous seasons, with geographical location no longer the determining factor. East Doncaster were relieved as their two teams did not have to play each other. There were no new clubs or clubs that left. Richard Tainton returned to Blackburn from East Burwood, while Doncaster was boosted by the arrival of William Colman from Blackburn and Paddy Gilchrist who returned from North Melbourne to join Lou Barelli. Opening bowler George Dryden joined Surrey Hills this season while Les Graham and R.Greening both joined Box Hill. Doncaster's Arthur Hardidge retired after 565 wickets in the competition.

Cedric Crouch was captain of the representative side against Richmond while the MCC avenged the previous season's defeat with a convincing win at Albert Park. 'Stork' Hendry made 31 and took 4-23 for MCC while Box Hill's William Rodgeron took 5-87 while his brother Stan Rodgeron was still a leading player with the MCC.

In a close fought game, Canterbury (126 and 146) defeated Surrey Hill (120 & 115) in the A Grade grand final. Harry Swan made 36 and took 6-26 in the second innings, while Surrey Hills' George Dryden took ten wickets for the match. BHRDCA records show that East Doncaster defeated Templestowe, but no scores exist for this match. (by 1924-25, coverage in the 'Reporter' had started to decline).

Canterbury's Harry Swan continued to be the leading player in the competition with 351 runs and 51 wickets. Sid Mackie from Canterbury made 483 runs. In B Grade, the East Doncaster Junior captain, Arti Peter-Budge took 56 wickets.

Prior to the start of the 1925-26 season, it was announced that the Eastern Suburbs Sunday School and Churches Cricket Association (ESSS&CCA) had merged with the Camberwell District Churches Cricket Association (CDCCA) to form the East Suburban Churches Cricket Association (ESCCA). The Sunday School clubs came from the Box Hill, Hawthorn and Kew area and it seemed a perfect fit with Camberwell in the middle of these locations. 31 teams entered making it a larger competition than the Reporter which fielded 23 teams from fourteen clubs. Clubs that entered the ESCCA included St. Barnabas, Wyclif Congregational, the Surrey Hills Methodists and the Box Hill Church of Christ which included a young bowler named Ray McIntosh in its ranks. One of Reporter's leading players in Harry Swan moved across to Wyclif and set a competition record of 101 wickets for the season.

The Reporter introduced a C grade for the first time, and by doing so offered a third premiership. A grade fielded seven teams with the withdrawal of the ¹⁴Nunawading Diggers, B grade fielded ten sides and C grade six, with Blackburn and East Doncaster's 'junior' sides playing in that grade along with Balwyn and Warrandyte who entered second XI's. C grade was completed by new clubs St. Peters (aka Box Hill KSP) and the Box Hill Wattles. In 1968 St. Peters changed their name to Box Hill North.

Formed in 1920-21, the Nunawading Diggers fielded a side in A grade but folded after five seasons. Their highest position was seventh and they finished last in 1924-25. After folding, their leading players in J.Marshall, H.Nicholson and B.Edgoose moved to Box Hill.

The season was made up of eleven rounds plus finals. The starting time was moved to 2:45pm from 3pm. On the player front Len Bullen left Doncaster to play with the Box Hill ANA, while Richard Tainton returned to Blackburn from Box Hill. George St. John made his debut for Surrey Hills and formed a formidable opening bowling partnership with George Dryden. V.Aumann commenced his thirty-year career at St. Peters.

Paddy Gilchrist had played with Doncaster in 1924-25 and started this season in fine style with 248 runs and 27 wickets in the first four rounds of the season before he departed. This was his last matches in the Reporter competition finishing with 871 wickets from approx. 133 games. Another legend in Wally Boyle made 172 for East Burwood in the Burwood association, while eighteen-year-old Jim Mullens Jr made 155 not out for Templestowe against Balwyn in A grade. As a promising batsman and wicketkeeper, he was selected in a state representative match against NSW. Other events during the season saw W.Neilson make 191 for Box Hill against the Doncaster Heights in B grade, while R.Wadsworth made 102 not out in 35 minutes as Balwyn chased down a target of 116 to win outright.

Representative cricket continued to be an important part of the calendar. The Reporter defeated Richmond with captain George Gunner making 62 and Cedric Crouch taking 4-47. Against the Ringwood association, the Reporter scored 300 to win easily with Templestowe's Joe Beale named man of the match. The Reporter made it two wins in a row against the MCC. George Gunner continued as captain and Joe Beale took 5-34.

The 1920's were a period of great final series, and this year was no different. After the first innings of the A grade Grand Final, Surrey Hills led Box Hill by 84 runs and with a second innings score of 221 set Box Hill 306 to win. But with their leading player in George St. John missing, Surrey Hills were a bowler down and with F.Williams (84), Maurie Sellars (51) and R.Pullen (63) leading the way, Box Hill won outright with two wickets to spare. Box Hill made it the second time they had won both A and B grade in one season with an outright win over the Box Hill ANA in B grade.

In C grade, St. Peters defeated the Box Hill Wattles by 20 runs to take the C grade premiership. The St. Peters bowling was the deciding factor with R.Black taking 8 wickets for the match and Robb Roff taking 5-44. In the semi-final against Blackburn, Roff made 194 and took match figures of 12-77.

In A grade, Templestowe's Eddie Mullens made 649 runs, and Robert Brown took 66 wickets for Blackburn. Templestowe's Joe Beale made 266 runs and took 47 wickets. In B grade, R.Greening (76 wickets) and Len Bullen (655 runs) both had fine seasons for Box Hill ANA while new player Art Luke made 590 runs for St. Andrews. Les Graham made 230 runs and took 58 wickets, and Vic Collier made 541 runs and took 42 wickets – both for Box Hill.

C grade was dominated by Robb Roff from St. Peters. Roff made 817 runs and took 104 wickets for the season in one of the Reporter's greatest seasons. 63 wickets from East Doncaster's Arti Peter-Budge paled in comparison.

There was a major upheaval when Doncaster announced that they were folding after 37 years. This could be attributed to the number of clubs in the Doncaster area with Doncaster Heights, East Doncaster and new club Doncaster Central competing for a small pool of players from the orchard and farming communities. With Doncaster's withdrawal A grade was reduced to six teams in an eleven round competition while B grade fielded eleven teams and C grade ten teams.

Mitcham returned to the competition, but it was a new look side with their leading player Les Graham who had transferred across from Box Hill. They entered B grade with Box Hill Wattles who were promoted from C grade. Blackburn, Canterbury and Surrey Hills entered three teams and there were 27 teams from fifteen clubs. New clubs to join included Doncaster Central and Box Hill Gas Works.

With Doncaster withdrawing Cedric Crouch moved to Blackburn, Bert Bulleen moved to Templestowe and William Colman joined Len Bullen at the Box Hill ANA. The Britt family were playing at Doncaster Heights, and new club Doncaster Central were joined by local players Harold Craze and P.Glennon. Box Hill's Vic Collier did not play this season while St. Peters lost Robb Roff to Box Hill – although he returned for two games mid-season. Joe Blair made his debut for St. Andrews and with brother Lyn was to become a leading player in the competition.

George Gunner continued to captain the Representative sides and the Reporter def Ringwood (Jim Mullens 82 and W.Moore ten wickets for the match), lost to Hawthorn East Melbourne and defeated Richmond with Cedric Crouch taking 6-33.

The A Grade premiership was decided by the same opponents as 1925-26 with Box Hill scrambling home to beat Surrey Hills outright by four wickets. After leading by ten runs in the first innings, Box Hill dismissed Surrey Hills cheaply, but it was a nervous run chase. H.Culliton made 69 and took seven wickets for Surrey Hills. In B Grade, Blackburn won their first premiership with their second XI defeating the unlucky Warrandyte. Leading by 23 runs after the first innings, Warrandyte was dismissed for 80. Chasing a target of 104, Blackburn was 5-16 before W.Coffin (48) and Bill Luff Snr bought them home. Luff took match figures of 13-71 in an outstanding performance.

The leading players in A Grade included Joe Beale from Templestowe with 342 runs and 40 wickets. Fred Weise (Box Hill) 57 wickets, Dr.May (Blackburn) 518 runs. Vic Chambers from Canterbury made 500 runs. B Grade was dominated by Les Britt Snr who made 456 runs and took 59 wickets for Doncaster Heights. A.Carkeek from East Doncaster made 708 runs, James Schubert from Warrandyte 683 runs and John Moore from Warrandyte took 64 wickets.

East Doncaster Junior captain Arti Peter-Budge took 90 wickets in C Grade. Promising Templestowe bowler, Percy Chivers, took 66 wickets while A.Vanslow was a rare shining light for the perennial cellar-dwellers, Balwyn, with 612 runs.

After folding in 1926, the Doncaster contingent of players initially spread far and wide, but for the 1927-28 season leading players such as Cedric Crouch, Bert Bullen, Len Bullen and Jack Plumb joined East Doncaster. That club fielded three teams and were promoted to A grade for the first time since 1911-12, despite winning four B grade premierships in the interim. Another team to enter A grade for the first time in many years was Warrandyte who welcomed the return of William Colman who had played with Blackburn, Doncaster and the Box Hill ANA since leaving Warrandyte in 1923. Box Hill ANA completed the A grade with eight teams. Balwyn had left the BHRDCA but was to return in 1928-29.

Twenty-six teams were fielded across A, B and C grade which was fixtured for ten rounds. The only new club to join was the Surrey Hills Footballers who took the spot of the Box Hill Gasworks. Canterbury withdrew their third XI at Christmas.

Harry Swan returned to Canterbury after two seasons with the Wyclif Congregationals. Wally Boyle returned to Mitcham after four seasons with East Burwood in the Burwood District competition. In the lower grades, Blackburn lost second XI premiership captain, William Luff Senior to Box Hill ANA.

The Reporter played in a Christmas representative carnival. Box Hill ANA's Reg Logan (166) and Vic Chambers from Surrey Hills (110) added 225 for the second wicket against I.N.F. The Reporter representative side went onto defeat Ringwood on ANA Day.

Harry Swan dominated the A grade season for Canterbury. From round one to seven, Swan took a sequence of 6-46, 6-18, 8-31, 8-58, 7-31, 3-51, 5-92, 6-68, 7-47, 4-21, 6-61 and 4-42. Swan ended the season with 105 wickets, including eleven in the semi-final and 5-78 in the Grand Final as Canterbury defeated Box Hill by an innings and 6 runs. Len Warmbrun made 88 and J.Smart made 66 and took 6-37 for the victors.

Canterbury became the second club to win both A and B grade in the same season, beating St. Andrews in the Grand Final. B.Chambers made 78, 84 not out and 34 in the final series, while Fred Fox took 24 wickets in the finals for St. Andrews with hauls of 7-41, 6-25, 6-62 and 5-55. In C grade, Doncaster Central defeated the unlucky Warrandyte by 36 runs to win a flag in their second season.

The efforts of Harry Swan in A grade was almost matched by Cedric Crouch who made 406 runs and took 69 wickets for East Doncaster. William Rodgers made 458 runs for Box Hill, with Len Warmbrun making 453 runs for Canterbury. B.Chambers (Canterbury) made the most runs in B grade with 639. Les Graham (564 runs) and Wally Boyle (429 runs) were the leading players for Mitcham while R.Greening took 61 wickets for Box Hill. Arguably the dominant player was Fred Fox who made 459 runs and took 69 wickets for St. Andrews. In C grade, Ben Broadbent took 48 wickets for Surrey Hills and A.Fromhold 57 wickets for Doncaster Central.

1928-29

After serving as President for eight seasons, Horrie Kent stepped down as was replaced by Robert.G.Gall. Ben

Box Hill Reporter District Cricket Association Inc

Broadbent took a one season break after nine years as Secretary with L.Howslip from Blackburn filling in for the season.

The Reporter changed the points system and removed negative points for losing matches. From 1928-29 it was four points for an outright win and two points for a first innings result.

Balwyn returned to the competition with two sides and pushed Warrandyte out of A grade. Vermont also returned after last playing in 1916-17 and fielded one side in C grade. Two new clubs joined the competition with Box Hill KSP and Tunstall joining. Box Hill KSP only lasted the one season while Tunstall changed the name to Nunawading in 1947 and became a powerhouse of the competition. They took the spot of the Surrey Hill Footballers who only lasted the one season.

The Surrey Hills Footballers played in C grade during the 1927-28 season and lost in the semi-final. They have not been found beyond this season.

Ten rounds were fixtured, and twenty-seven teams entered in three grades. Blackburn and East Doncaster both fielded three sides, but East Doncaster withdrew their junior XI after round six. During the season Blackburn KSP made the lowest ever recorded score with 3 against Templestowe batting with eight players.

The Burwood District competition continued to grow and in 1928-29 and fielded sixteen teams in two grades. This included Burwood, East Burwood, Hartwell, Mt.Waverley, Glen Waverley, Scoresby, Mulgrave and Wantirna.

William Rodgeron was captain of the Reporter Representative side that defeated Ringwood on ANA Day. Cedric Crouch made 32 and took 7-38 while Bill Allen led the Ringwood side.

Templestowe surprised all by defeating Canterbury in the A grade grand final (no scores found). They were lucky to make the final after trailing by 78 runs in the semi-final, only to chase down a target of 135 to win. In B grade, the Doncaster Heights won their second flag by defeating Box Hill. J.Riddell made 65 and took seven wickets for the winners. The C grade premiership was secured by Tunstall over Balwyn in a convincing 128 run victory. Tunstall's F.Hayes made 36 not out and 31 and took twelve wickets for the match.

The leading run-makers in A grade was the Templestowe pair of Eddie Mullens (528 runs) and Tony Fitzsimons (451 runs). C.Denman made 478 runs for Canterbury and William Rodgeron 423 runs for Box Hill. With the ball, Harry Swan took another 69 wickets, while Bob Brown (Blackburn) took 47 wickets and Joe Beale (Templestowe) 48 wickets.

In B grade, the Mitcham pair of Wally Boyle (421 runs) and Les Graham (436 runs) continued their form from the previous season. The St. Andrews pair of Fred Fox (272 runs and 49 wickets) and Lyn Blair (40 wickets) continued their form from previous seasons with the ball. In C grade Mx Birtles from the Box Hill Wattles made 413 runs.

The season marked the beginning of the boom years for the Reporter competition, which lasted through to the mid 1930's. In 1929-30 the association increased from 28 teams to 35 teams from 23 clubs.

New clubs to join included Blackburn IOR¹⁶ who were made up several Blackburn second XI players who had joined the temperance movement. Surrey Hills Methodists were a new club formed by Reporter Secretary Ben Broadbent and fielded two sides. Four other new clubs joined the Reporter, that being Box Hill South, Box Hill Stars, Loyal Kooyong Lodge and St. Peters YMS. The only club to leave the competition was Blackburn KSP¹⁷

The Independent Order of Rechabites (IOR), also known as the Sons and Daughters of Rechab, is a fraternal organisation and friendly society founded in England in 1835 as part of the wider temperance movement to promote total abstinence from alcoholic beverages. The Order has been active in Australia from 1843.

Blackburn KSP only played the one season and lost their six games found. They will be remembered for recording the lowest score, 3, in competition history.

As a result of this expansion A grade was extended to ten teams with Doncaster Heights and St. Andrews both promoted. New clubs Blackburn IOR and Surrey Methodists were placed in B grade while Vermont and Tunstall were promoted from C grade at the expense of second XIs from Blackburn and East Doncaster. C grade was filled with thirteen clubs. Ten rounds were fixtured.

New players to join the fray included Jack Herring from Vermont and Laurie Tully who started with Doncaster Central but ended up with Doncaster Heights in later seasons. B grade club Mitcham had regained the services of Wally Boyle, Lou Barelli and Bill Kennedy as they aimed to return to A grade. Doncaster Heights benefited from the return of Harold Britt from St. Kilda. Britt was to become of the leading and more controversial players in the competition.

Representative cricket continued with Harry Swan leading the side to a win over Ringwood, but a loss to Camberwell. Harold Britt took match figures of 15-63 against Manchester Unity in another representative game. Britt was named player of the tournament and the Australian Junior Cricket Championships.

A new competition emerged, known as the Eastern Suburbs Protestant Association and included clubs such as Canterbury Presbyterians, Wyclif Congregationals, Box Hill Church of Christ, Hawthorn Church of Christ, Chalmers Presbyterians, Mont Albert Methodists, St. Mary's Church of England and Canterbury Baptists. These clubs moved to the Eastern Churches competition shortly after.

At the end of the final series, the Reporter newspaper reported this was the greatest final series ever and it's hard to argue with the standard of matches played.

In A grade semi-finals Canterbury led Surrey Hills by 100 runs after a score of 346. Surrey Hills dug in and matched their first innings score of 246 and dismissed Canterbury for 134 to win by 12 runs. Harry Swan took eight wickets for the game. In the other semi-final, Box Hill defeated Templestowe by 35 runs after a tight tussle.

Surrey Hills had last won the premiership in 1913-14 and had lost three grand finals in a row in recent times. They dismissed Box Hill for 35 in their first dig and put previous disappointments behind them with an 83 run outright victory. George St. John took ten wickets for the match.

Mitcham made 404 in the second innings of their B grade semi-final against Warrandyte with Les Graham making 178. In the other game, Box Hill defeated Warrandyte with R.Greening taking 10-50 in Warrandyte's second innings. Led by 11 wickets from Lou Barelli, Mitcham defeated Box Hill to take out the B grade flag.

The C grade finals had its share of surprises. The Box Hill Wattles dismissed St. Peters YMS for 32 in their first innings but still lost outright by nine wickets. J.Logan made 55 and took twelve wickets for the winners. In the other semi-final the Doncaster Central scraped home to win outright by one wicket, chasing down a target of 87 with one wicket to spare. The Central's gave up a 57-run lead in the first innings of the grand final, but J.Riddell making 105 in the second dig, set St. Peters YMS a target of 157 runs which they fell short by 24 runs.

Fred Weise (Box Hill) was the leading wicket-taker in A grade with 53 wickets, including a run of 7-105, 5-53, 5-20, 5-93, 5-56 and 5-40 in consecutive innings after Christmas. Harry Swan took 47 wickets for Canterbury and George St. John 44 wickets for Surrey Hills. Leading run-maker was Williams Rodgeron with 518 runs for Box Hill, with Blackburn's Jack Grant making 443 runs and Eddie Mullens 426 runs for Templestowe.

Mitcham's Les Graham was the dominant player in B grade with 624 runs and 52 wickets. Vic Collier made 477 runs from Box Hill while R.Greening from Box Hill took 67 wickets and J.Walters from Surrey Hills Methodists took 48 wickets. In C grade, Ernie Roff dominated with 811 runs from St. Peters YMS. H.Laurence took 56 wickets for Box Hill Wattles and Fred Prieser 49 wickets for Balwyn.

The 1920's were dominated by Box Hill, Canterbury and Surrey Hills, who won ten premierships between them from 1921-22 to 1931-32. Blackburn, Doncaster and Templestowe snapped at their heels and made their share of finals during this time. The standard of cricket and some of the individual performances was nothing short of outstanding during this eleven-year period.

After growing by seven teams in 1929-30, the Reporter exceeded that effort by growing from 33 teams to 43 teams from 31 clubs. By comparison, the Burwood competition fielded 22 teams from 17 clubs in two grades. The Eastern Churches fielded five grades with 45 teams from 30 clubs. The ESCA fielded 31 teams from 25 clubs with three grades.

New clubs to join the competition included Mont Albert, Box Hill Church of Christ (from the Eastern Churches), the Returned Soldiers (aka Box Hill RSL), Surrey Hills CYMS, Box Hill Amateurs and Box Hill Methodists. A grade was expanded to twelve teams with Mont Albert included along with Mitcham and Surrey Hill Methodists who were promoted from B grade. Doncaster reformed after a four-year hiatus and players such as Cedric Crouch, Jack Plumb and the Bulleen brothers returned. East Doncaster lost several players to Doncaster, and their only side went from A grade to C grade. B grade also expanded to twelve teams.

This left nineteen teams to make up C grade which was split into two sections. The top two sides from each section would then play in the semi-finals, with only one premiership available between the nineteen sides.

Eleven rounds were fixtured. There was no play on 15 November 1930 due to the Jack Ryder tribute game being played at the MCG.

New players to start with the competition included Gordon Gray and Maurie Nielson from Box Hill Church of Christ, Lin Stacey at Mitcham, N.Falconer at St. Peters and Joe Cain from the Box Hill Amateurs. Another player to feature was Henry Wilson, who started with Box Hill but was to make an impact at Blackburn in coming seasons. Ernie Roff left St. Peters YMS to join Box Hill. The only player of note to have retired was Arthur Smith who took 398 wickets at four clubs.

Cedric Crouch was captain of the BHRDCA side that defeated Ringwood. Crouch took 6-16 in this game. Doncaster's Harold Britt played in the Victorian VJCU side that defeated South Australia in three matches over Christmas. Britt took 18 wickets and was now seen as a future Victorian, if not Australian player and it was suggested that he was wasting his talent at local level.

The A grade final series was equal to the previous season with Surrey Hills winning their second consecutive flag against the odds. In the semi-final against Templestowe, they trailed by 82 runs after the first innings but posted 228 in their second dig to win outright by 72 runs. They went on to beat Canterbury outright by 23 runs in a four-day grand final that ended 2 May 1931. Surrey Hills captain George St. Johns took 12-82 for the match and 23 wickets in the final series. A.Blanden made scores of 86, 31 not out and 30 for Surrey Hills in the finals while Clyde Ingram took 21 wickets for 76 runs for Canterbury in the finals.

In B grade, Box Hill defeated Warrandyte by 116 runs with R.Greening taking 21 wickets in the finals for Box Hill. Doncaster Central won their third C grade flag in four years, downing the Box Hill Stars by 58 runs.

The leading batsmen in A grade were Eddie Mullens with 406 runs for Templestowe and Jack Grant with 398 runs for Blackburn. With the ball, the Surrey Hills pair of George Dryden (45 wickets) and George St. Johns (54 wickets) were matched by the Canterbury pair of Clyde Ingram (56 wickets) and Harry Swan (46 wickets). John Walters took 46 wickets for Surrey Hills Methodists.

Box Hill Reporter District Cricket Association Inc

In B grade, W.Luff Jnr made 676 runs for Blackburn IOR, while Gordon Gray made 537 runs for Box Hill Church of Christ. R.Collier took 62 wickets for Box Hill, Frank Hayes 50 wickets for Tunstall, and R.Greening 48 wickets for Box Hill after an outstanding final series. In C grade, S.Arnold made 466 runs for Vermont, and T.Meehan took 54 wickets for Box Hill South.

After eleven seasons as Reporter secretary, Ben Broadbent stepped down and was replaced by Arthur Luke from St. Andrews.

The competition numbers dropped slightly in 1931-32 with 41 teams entered. The only new team to enter was Box Hill High School in C grade, while the 24th Battalion folded after only one season. The Box Hill Amateurs changed their name to the Box Hill Hibernians and St. Peters YMS changed their name to Box Hill Combined. After winning three C grade flags in four years, the Doncaster Central club merged with Doncaster who were joined by the competitions most promising young player in Harold Britt.

Based at Wattle Park, the 24th Battalion played one season in C grade, finishing in eighteenth spot.

For a club that only lasted five seasons, Doncaster Central enjoyed one of the most successful runs in Reporter history winning three C grade premierships. A number of established Doncaster families, such as Aumann, Cousins and Fromhold played with the club and once they merged with Doncaster in 1931-32, the playing group moved to any of the four Doncaster based clubs playing at the time.

A grade continued with the same twelve teams from the previous season. B grade played with thirteen teams which included a bye. C Grade was split into two sections of eight teams each with only one premiership available between sixteen teams.

Twelve rounds were scheduled with a one-day game played on ANA Day and the semi-finals not starting until the last Saturday in March.

The A grade premiership was won outright by Canterbury, with Harry Swan playing one of the greatest games in Reporter history, taking 8-81 in each innings of the grand final to finish with 16-162 for the match. Swan had taken nine wickets in the semi-final win over St. Andrews and ended the final series with 25 wickets. Other highlights in the A grade finals included 51 and 57 not out by Canterbury's F.Eyers in the grand final and match figures of 14-116 by Joe Blair in St. Andrews losing semi-final to Canterbury.

The B grade premiership was won by Box Hill Combined who defeated Tunstall by seven wickets. Lou Sleeth (53 and 5-19) led the Combined to victory, while Ernie Roff capped off a fine season for the winners. Despite an outstanding game by East Doncaster's Arti Peter-Budge (53 and ten wickets for the match) they went down to the Box Hill Stars in the C grade grand final by 133 runs.

Doncaster's Harold Britt was superb in A grade with 598 runs and 33 wickets. Britt made successive scores of 25, 40, 76, 128no, 16, 67, 53, 57, 13, 102no and 21 up until round eleven. His efforts were almost matched by Les Graham from Mitcham with 446 runs and 38 wickets. J.Milne from St. Andrews made 594 runs, while Harry Swan (71 wickets for Canterbury), Joe Blair (63 wickets for St. Andrews) and Fred Linden (60 wickets) from Box Hill ANA were the leading wicket takers.

Ernie Roff returned from Box Hill to Box Hill Combined and exceeded his 811 runs from 1929-30 with 888 runs in 1931-32. Roff made scores of 155no, 132, 93, 84, 72, 62 and 51 during the season. Roy Tully from Doncaster Heights enjoyed his best season with 550 runs including 104 and 5-91 against Vermont. The leading wicket-taker was Dave Boyle from Tunstall with 47 wickets.

The C grade season was dominated by Frank Hayes from the Box Hill Wattles who had transferred across from Tunstall. Hayes made 799 runs and took 64 wickets which included 184 not out against East Doncaster, 100no, 94 and 91 along with 7-8 against St. Andrews. R.Foster made 734 runs for Blackburn with 191 against Tunstall and another score for 136, while G.Galane made 519 runs for Box Hill Stars. Arti Peter-Budge took 50 wickets for East Doncaster. While Joe Cain took 10-36 for the Box Hill Hibernians against Surrey Hills CYMS.

The competition returned to 43 teams in 1932-33 and as a result both B and C grade were split into sections of fifteen teams and sixteen teams respectively, with one premiership on offer in each grade. A grade continued with the same twelve teams as the previous two seasons.

With twelve rounds in each grade plus finals, 268 matches were scheduled in 1932-33 which was the largest season by matches until 1962-63. One note from this season was the decline in match coverage in the local newspapers. From November onwards, scorecards were replaced by paragraphed summaries. While full details were listed, the number of matches not covered increased notably.

New clubs to join included the Balwyn PAFS and the Box Hill South Progress. The reigning C grade premiers, Box Hill Stars, changed their name to Box Hill City and the Returned Soldiers club was also commonly referred to as the Box Hill Diggers. The Blackburn IOR contingent returned to Blackburn this season.

Founded by the Luff family, Blackburn IOR was formed in 1929-30 by members of Blackburn's second XI. In their three seasons they finished mid-table in B grade. W.Luff Jnr provided the main highlight with 676 runs in 1930-31.

Box Hill surprised when they didn't field a second XI, which had won four premierships in the 1920's. That there were twelve clubs in the immediate Box Hill area would have contributed. The club with the biggest boost was Blackburn, as they merged with Blackburn IOR whose players formed the bulk of the second XI. But it was the recruitment of leading A grade players in Harold Britt from Doncaster and Henry Wilson from Box Hill that was to have the greatest impact.

Players to retire after 1931-32 included Canterbury's Billy Lachlan and Box Hill's V. Collier. Mitcham's Len Williams made his debut this season.

A grade was dominated by Blackburn who went onto win their first premiership, thrashing Mitcham by an innings and 79 runs. Harold Britt made 89 and took six wickets for the match while Henry Wilson made 44 and took match figures of 11-67. Wilson also made 81 not out in the semi-final win over Canterbury.

The Returned Soldiers and Box Hill Combined topped their respective B grade section ladders, but both lost their semi-finals. In the grand final the Box Hill Methodists took a seventeen-run lead into the second innings but Canterbury's M.Webb took 8-28, bowled the Methodists out for 72 and Canterbury won outright by five wickets.

The top two teams from C grade Section I, the Box Hill Wattles and Box Hill Hibernians played off the in grand final with the Wattles winning by 41 runs after both sides posted 259 and 234 in respective second innings. Box Hill Wattles' A.Pullen was the star of the finals with 7-37 in the semi-final, then 63, 8-23 and 5-53 in the grand final.

The top three run-getters in A grade were all from Blackburn with Harold Britt (580 runs and 34 wickets), Henry Wilson (554 runs and 38 wickets), and Jack Grant (350 runs including 168 against Box Hill) dominant. The leading wicket-taker was Harry Swan with 64 wickets and Fred Linden from Box Hill ANA with 59 wickets. Blackburn stalwart Robert Brown celebrated his only A grade premiership with 42 wickets and the A grade bowling award.

Ernie Roff continued to accumulate runs for the Box Hill Combined with 556 runs in B grade. The leading B grade wicket-taker was John Marshall from the Returned Soldiers with 60 wickets.

In C grade, A.Pullen made 293 runs and took 51 wickets. In his third season, Joe Cain was starting to make his stamp on the lowest grade with 690 runs for the Box Hill Hibernians including scores of 119 not out and 111 not out. J.Carkeek took 56 wickets for the Balwyn PAFS.

1933-34

After much debate the Reporter District Cricket Association changed its name to the Box Hill Reporter District Cricket Association (BHRDCA) in 1933 – a name that continues in 2025. No reason for the name change has been found, but one theory was to avoid confusion with the neighbouring Ringwood District Cricket Association (RDCA).

The BHRDCA was swamped with clubs from the Box Hill area. The Box Hill Council ground allocations for 1933-34 are as follows with BHRDCA clubs sharing grounds with Eastern Churches clubs

Middleborough Park – No.1 – Box Hill 'A' and Returned Soldiers
Middleborough Park – No.2 – Box Hill Wattles and St. Peters
Middleborough Park – No.3 – Box Hill Combined and Box Hill CofC 'A'
Whitehorse Rd – St. Andrews and Box Hill ANA (ANA merged with Box Hill)
Springfield Park – Box Hill CofC 'B' and Box Hill City
Surrey Park – No.1 – Surrey Hills 'A' and 'B'
Surrey Park - No.2 – Surrey Hills CYMS 'A' and 'B'
Surrey Park – No.3 – Box Hill Methodists 'A' and 'B'
Surrey Park – No.4 – Surrey Hills Presbyterians 'A' and 'B'
Surrey Park - No.5 – Surrey Hills CofC and Box Hill High School
Surrey Park – No.6 – Box Hill South and Kooyong Lodge
Surrey Park – No.7 – Holy Trinity and Box Hill Hibernians
Mont Albert Reserve – No.1 – Mont Albert 'A' and 'B'
Mont Albert Reserve – No.2 – Surrey Hills Methodists 'A' and 'B'
Mont Albert Reserve – No.3 – Howard Rd and Mont Albert Methodists
Burwood Reserve – Burwood Methodists and Burwood Presbyterians

The Box Hill ANA club merged with Box Hill at the start of the season. This bolstered Box Hill with the arrival of established players such as Bernie Keenan and leading bowler Fred Linden. But they lost R. Greening to St. Andrews.

Formed in 1922-23 by the Box Hill branch of the Australia Natives Association, the Box Hill ANA spent twelve seasons in the BHRDCA before merging with Box Hill in 1933-34.

After finishing B grade runners-up in 1925-26, Box Hill ANA was promoted to A grade in 1927-28. The improved gradually but never made finals before their merger.

Leading players included Fred Linden with 60 wickets in 1931-32 and 59 wickets in 1932-33. Bernie Keenan also spent four seasons with the club and moved to Box Hill for a brief period.

The Box Hill Methodists were promoted to A grade at the expense of Box Hill ANA. B grade was split into two sections of nine and eight teams with Surrey Hills CYMS and Box Hill Wattles promoted to B grade and the re-entry of Box Hill's second XI. The Box Hill Gas Works returned to B grade after playing one season in 1928-29. C grade was one section of twelve teams as Balwyn PAFS withdrew from the competition after one season.

Mitcham and Vermont legend Dudley Boyle retired after the 1932-33 season as did Surrey Hills long-term captain George Gunner who remained the highest A grade run-maker until the 1970's. Gunner was a regular in BHRDCA representative teams and was captain on several occasions. J. Wills from Vermont made his debut.

The BHRDCA played representative matches against Richmond and Brighton District losing both.

Led by Joe and Lyn Blair, St. Andrews won their only A grade premiership, defeating Canterbury by eight wickets. Lyn Blair took nine wickets in the grand final while R.Greening proved the worth of his move from Box Hill, playing important roles in both finals. On the downside, Balwyn won the wooden spoon for the fourth consecutive season.

Box Hill Reporter District Cricket Association Inc

Doncaster Heights won the B grade flag defeating Canterbury's second XI. Harry Swan was talked out of retirement to play in Canterbury's second XI, but he bowed out after losing this grand final.

During the season, the Box Hill Wattles posted 7-523 against Doncaster in B grade. But in the following game were bundled out for 61, losing to Box Hill Combined by 315 runs.

The C grade final was a fascinating one with East Doncaster defeating the Box Hill Hibernians by 129 runs, despite Joe Cain made 72 and 75 in the two innings (Cain had made 56 and 49 in the semi-final win over Box Hill City). East Doncaster's win can be attributed to their last wicket partnerships of 92 and 82 in respective innings which proved the difference.

Canterbury's Keith Silvers made 510 runs in A grade, while Harold Britt continued his excellent form with 456 runs. For St. Andrews Lyn Blair made 325 runs and took 27 wickets while Joe Blair took 39 wickets. Tom Alway from Canterbury took 40 wickets. Rob Brown from Blackburn took 37 wickets in one of his final seasons, including five 5-fors.

Lou Sleeth from Box Hill Combined was the dominant player in B grade with 446 runs and 61 wickets. W. Cocking took 48 wickets for Box Hill Gas Works, while up and coming youngster, Les Britt Jnr took 44 wickets for Box Hill. Merv McIntosh (brother of Ray) made 386 runs for Doncaster Heights including scores of 118, 98no and 78.

East Doncaster's Roy Cousins made 648 runs in A grade along with 33 wickets while Arti Peter-Budge took 44 wickets. Many records were missing in C grade, with Joe Cain only recorded with seven innings and 388 runs. Earlier in the season, E. Vine was recorded with 102 not out and 105 from successive games for Box Hill City.

Season 1934-35 saw the BHRDCA reach a high point with a new committee and a lot of movement at club and player level.

For the 1934-35 season there were wholesale changes to the BHRDCA executive as Harry Swan was elected President, replacing Robert Gall. Ted Hubbard from Mont Albert was named vice-president and Doncaster Heights delegate Roy Tully started his fifteen-year involvement on the BHRDCA executive as treasurer. Herb Riddell from Box Hill ANA was the incumbent Secretary.

The following was published in the Sporting Globe – 12 January 1935

BHRDCA Well Managed

Forty years ago, Mr.F.G.Hodges, proprietor of the Reporter, presided over a body who played social matches in the Box Hill district. In 1902 he thought that an association should be (re) formed and his idea became an established fact the same year.

Chief amongst those responsible of the association in addition to Mr. Hodges were Mr.O.Walker,

Mr.W.Kennedy and Mr.J.J.Tully and others (ed – Phil Plaisted should also have been mentioned here). In deference to Mr. Hodges, who was elected president, the Association was called the Box Hill Reporter Association.

Mr. Hodges, who is now a councillor at Healesville, guided the destinies of the Association for 25 years and on resigning the presidency (in 1919) was handed over to Mr. Horrie Kent, who proved a worthy successor. During Mr. Kent's regime inter association fixtures were arranged, and the Association was made a more virile body. He was a free donor of trophies, and his services were recognised with a life membership.

Mr. Robert R Gall succeeded Mr. Kent and held the reins to close of last season when he handed over to Mr. Harry Swan.

Mr Ben Broadbent took over the secretarial duties in 1918, when ten clubs comprised that the competition and during his term of office rapid progress was made. Today, 44 well conducted clubs (ed – 44 teams from 30 clubs) playing in three sections is the strength. Mr. Broadbent was succeeded by Mr. Herb D Riddell who is still in office.

The association has unearthed several good cricketers, including Percy Chivers (Northcote), William Scott (University), Vic Chambers (Camberwell), Robert Brown (Camberwell), Harold Britt (Collingwood), Jim Mullens Jnr (Fitzroy) and C. Mullens (Collingwood).

The association is enterprising and annually plays matches on turf against Melbourne, Richmond and Camberwell, while the representative team in inter-association games has always given a good account of itself.

A fine crowd of experienced officials, working in harmony, is the main reason for the Association's success.

Not mentioned was assistant secretary, Bernie Keenan from Box Hill, who suffered a severe injury cutting wood, and was unable to serve on the committee this season.

Clubs to join the BHRDCA included Doncaster Triangle (formed by competition stalwart Les Britt Snr), Eastern Dairies, and Manchester Unity who were based in the Hawthorn area. Surrey Hill Methodists left for the Eastern Churches competition while the Returned Soldiers joined the new formed RSL association and played as the Box Hill RSL.

The Surrey Hills Methodists formed in 1923-24 and played in the Eastern Churches competition until the joined Reporter in 1929-30. They won the B grade premiership in 1926-27.

Playing in A grade, they had little success until leaving the BHRDCA in 1934. Their leading player was J.Walters with 48 wickets in 1929-30 and 46 wickets in 1930-31.

They rejoined the Eastern Churches in 1936-37 and played until 1950-51, missing a couple of years during WWII. They played in A grade for three seasons.

Formed by the Box Hill RSL, the Returned Soldiers played in B grade from 1930-31 to 1933-34. Their best effort was the semi-finals in 1932-33.

In 1934-35, Box Hill RSL joined the Melbourne RSL association and won the RSL premiership in 1935-36.

Box Hill Reporter District Cricket Association Inc

Tunstall returned to the competition after missing 1933-34, and Balwyn PAFS also returned, but for only one more season.

Warrandyte returned to the competition and was placed in A grade. Their season was severely disrupted by the catastrophic floods of early December 1934. The Argus recorded

Catastrophic Floods

The town of Warrandyte in the middle reaches of the Yarra River suffered severe damage with water rising over 15 metres above its regular height. The houses of 40 residents were damaged or destroyed with the local church and post office completely flooded.

The biggest shock at the start of the season was the withdrawal of Mitcham through a lack of committed players. Fortunately, Doncaster stepped up and filled the gap in A grade. Lin Stacey joined Doncaster, while Les Graham moved to Box Hill City where he played for the remainder of his career.

A Grade ended up with eleven teams resulting in a bye. B grade was split into two sections with ten teams in each. C grade included twelve teams. There were now thirteen clubs in the Box Hill area. Eleven rounds were scheduled, and outright winners received four points for an outright win, two points for a first innings win and one point for a draw or a bye. A normal day's play went for 3 hours and 30 minutes.

Blackburn's Harold Britt left to play district cricket at Collingwood and eventually played for Victoria in 1935-36. ESCA legend Garnet Armstrong began his lengthy career with Mont Albert while Harry Swan finally retired as a player with Canterbury finishing with 832 wickets.

The BHRDCA played the MCC in February 1935 and were not disgraced, making 289 which the MCC responded with 6-366. Australian cricket legend Bill Ponsford made 66.

Box Hill Methodists made A grade finals for the first time by dismissing Surrey Hills for 24 and 25 in round eleven to leapfrog them. The were no match for Canterbury in the semi-final and Canterbury went onto to defeat a brave Blackburn in the grand final by 84 runs. Henry Wilson (13 wickets) and Robert Brown (15 wickets) dominated the finals, but Clyde Ingram stood up with 58 and 4-14 to win the game for Canterbury.

Despite the dominance of Blackburn's Les Britt Jnr, East Doncaster defeated Blackburn to win the B grade flag. In C grade, St. Peters easily beat St. Andrews by an innings in the grand final. N. Falconer took 16 for 66 in the finals for St. Peters.

With declining coverage player stats were not recorded as high as previous years. In A grade Canterbury's W. Smith made 397 runs while Clyde Ingram made 216 runs and took 41 wickets. Blackburn veteran, Robert Brown, had an outstanding final series and finished with 46 wickets.

In B grade Merv McIntosh had joined brother Ray at the Box Hill Church of Christ and Merv made 457 runs and took 32 wickets. Ray took 46 wickets, but this paled into comparison to Les Britt Jnr who took an amazing 104 wickets included ten five-fors for Blackburn. After Christmas, Les Britt Jnr took 8-37, 6-18, 7-19 and 6-35 in the last four home and away games. Then against Tunstall in the semi-final he took 6-34 and 6-31.

The dominant figure in C grade was A. Green from the Box Hill Methodists who took 73 wickets included three ten-fors. A. Holmes from St. Andrews made 320 runs and took 39 wickets.

1935-36

1935-36 season marked the beginning of a shift in association strength compared to other local competitions. For the previous thirty years, the BHRDCA was seen as the premier competition in the eastern suburbs, but this changed with the formation of a turf grade in the Eastern Suburbs Cricket Association (ESCA) that was to start in 1936-37.

Surrey Hills had been keen to join a turf completion and moved across from the BHRDCA to ESCA along with Balwyn. With premierships in 1902-03, 1904-05, 1912-13, 1913-14, 1929-30 and 1930-31, Surrey Hills were considered (alongside Canterbury and Box Hill) a traditional powerhouse of the BHRDCA.

A founding club of the Reporter competition in 1890-91, Surrey Hills was considered one of the top three clubs before they left the competition in 1935-36.

Surrey Hills won A grade flags in 1902-03, 1904-05, 1912-13, 1913-14, 1929-30 and 1930-31. The also lost three consecutive A grade grand finals from 1924-25 to 1926-27 and made finals eight years during the 1920's.

Blessed with the premier ground in the district – Surrey Park – Surrey Hills entered a second XI from 1922-34.

During the 1920's and early 1930's, Surrey Hills held leading players such as George Gunner (313 games and 6367 runs) who was the highest A grade run scorer until the 1960's and was a regular captain of the Reporter representative team. George St. John (263 wickets) and George Dryden (253 wickets) were amongst the more successful opening bowling pair from the mid 1920's to early 1930's.

Joining ESCA in 1935-36, Surrey Hills achieved A grade turf success in 1942-43, 1943-44, 1967-68 (shared), 1972-73 (shared) and 1974-75. Surrey Hills won eighteen ESCA premierships and five more in the ECA with their most recent premiership in A turf in 1924-25. They've not made ECA A turf finals since 1999-00.

One of the foundation members of the BHRDCA Vets, Surrey Hills won A grade Vets premierships in 1997-98, 1999-00 and 2000-01, finishing runner-up in 1998-99.

Balwyn's move and acceptance into sub-district was surprising considering their perennial cellar-dweller status. Balwyn had finished last in nine of their thirteen completed A grade seasons, and their best effort was fifth.

The first mention of Balwyn was from the 1880's when BHRDCA legend, Tom Mackie, played his first matches. But there was no mention again until their official formation date of 1921.

Box Hill Reporter District Cricket Association Inc

Balwyn played in the BHRDCA from 1921-22 to 1934-35, only missing 1927-28. Although they fielded two teams with the first XI in A grade, they had the poorest record of any club with nine A grade wooden spoons out of thirteen seasons in A grade. The closest they got to a premiership was their second XI losing the C grade grand final in 1928-29. Their best players during their BHRDCA years were Fred Prieser and foundation member Willy Pocket who originally played with Canterbury.

On the installation of a turf wicket at Balwyn Park in 1935, Balwyn joined ESCA and played matting for one season before their turf wicket was completed in time for 1936-37. Balwyn played A grade turf and made the finals on several occasions before their first and second XIs moved across to the VSDCA.

Their lower teams continued with ESCA until 1997-98 when the VSDCA expanded to include third and fourth XI.

Balwyn has won nine ESCA premierships but have never won a VSDCA A grade premiership. The club peaked with six teams in the mid 1980's. S.Davis is recorded with 668 Sub District wickets.

After 25 years of what seemed annual debate, Warrandyte were refused entry due to traveling distance joined the Ringwood association (returning to the BHRDCA in 1950-51). The Eastern Dairies and Box Hill South merged to form Box Hill Central. Manchester Unity changed their name to Windsor Park and Mitcham returned to the competition after missing 1934-35. The Balwyn PAFS folded.

With Surrey Hills and Balwyn leaving, the Box Hill Combined were promoted into A grade along with East Doncaster and Tunstall who took the places of Warrandyte and Templestowe. A grade was back to an even ten teams.

B grade was one grade of twelve teams, while C grade was split into Section I and II of seven teams each. The BHRDCA introduced separate premierships for each C grade section for the first time.

In all 36 teams entered and each grade played eleven rounds. The A grade was sponsored by Nutting & Young, a local cricket ball manufacturer.

East Doncaster's rise into A grade was helped by the arrival of Tom Britt and Les Britt Jnr from Blackburn. Harold Britt had joined Collingwood and was to play for Victoria in 1935-36. Blackburn also lost Henry Wilson. In the lower grades, the Box Hill Wattles was joined by M.Marshall was outstanding in his only season in the competition. Jack Cashen made his debut for Templestowe. Box Hill's Fred Weise retired after the 1934-35 season with 573 wickets found from 231 matches.

The standard of cricket was as good as ever with both Mont Albert and East Doncaster making A grade finals. After conceding a first innings lead to St. Andrews, Canterbury posted 306 in their second innings and dismissed St. Andrews for 78 to win the premiership by 183 runs. Joe Blair took match figures of 11-110 in the grand final to cap off an outstanding year, while brother Lyn took 10-51 in the semi-final. It was Canterbury's overall team performance that resulted in their eleventh flag.

Box Hill Church of Christ was building with the arrival of the Nielsen brothers to compliment Ray McIntosh. They thrashed Vermont by an innings and 128 runs in the B grade grand final. Keith Nielsen made 151 not out in the grand final, Maurie Nielsen made 70 and 82 in respective finals, while Ray McIntosh took 7-19, 6-53 and 6-65 across the final series.

Scores were level after the first innings of the C grade section I grand final at 168 apiece before St. Andrews chased down the target of 157 with three wickets in hand to defeat the Box Hill Wattles. A. Armstrong took 14 wickets across the final series for the winners.

The Box Hill Central took out the section II premiership after an outstanding performance by W.Smith in the semi-final win over Templestowe. Smith made 46 and 116 as the Central overcame a large first inning deficit. In the grand final, Smith made 36 and took eight wickets in the match as the Central defeated Box Hill South Progress by ten wickets. Smith left Canterbury after being their leading batsman in 1934-35.

Canterbury's Keith Silvers made 618 runs in A grade with scores of 133, 106no, 73no and 63 after Christmas. East Doncaster's Eighteen-year-old Tom Britt made 546 runs and Garnet Armstrong made 498 runs for Mont Albert. The St. Andrews pair of Lyn Blair (478 runs and 46 wickets) and Joe Blair (73 wickets) had now established themselves as two of the best played in the competition. Joe Blair took five wickets in an innings on ten occasions. After taking 104 wickets for Blackburn in 1934-35, Les Britt Jnr took 54 wickets for East Doncaster in A grade. Canterbury all-rounder Stan Self made 216 runs and took 51 wickets.

The three top run-makers in B grade all came from the Box Hill Church of Christ with Maurie Nielsen (575 runs), Keith Nielsen (453 runs) and Gordon Gray (380) all showing signs of their dominance to come. Ray McIntosh took 57 wickets including four ten-fors.

M.Marshall from the Box Hill Wattles dominated C grade with 84 wickets including four ten-fors, while E.Elliott from Box Hill South Progress made 675 runs and took 45 wickets. W.Smith from Box Hill Central made 389 runs and took 42 wickets after a strong final series that saw the Central take the section II premiership.

1936-37

The BHRDCA was reduced to 32 teams from 43 teams two years earlier. The Box Hill Combined withdrew just before the start of the season, leaving a bye in A grade. Tunstall left the competition to play in the Ringwood association, and the Box Hill Church of Christ was promoted to A grade.

Formed as St. Peters YMS in 1929-30, the Box Hill Combined Cricket Club were led by Ernie Roff and quickly achieved success finishing runners-up in C grade in their first season. Changing their name in 1931-32, the Combined won B grade the same season.

After promotion to A grade in 1935-36, the club lost a number of players, and they folded at the start of the following season when they withdrew from A grade.

Box Hill Reporter District Cricket Association Inc

Ernie Roff made 3126 runs including 811 runs in 1929-30, 888 runs in 1931-32 and 556 runs in 1932-33. Lou Sleeth was another leading player who took 169 wickets in his time with the club. Sleeth went on to become a leading player with Box Hill.

Several lower grade clubs also left with Loyal Kooyong Lodge and Windsor Park both disbanded. Surrey Hills CYMS also left the competition briefly. The only new club to join the BHRDCA was the Canterbury Free Gardeners.

One of the many clubs that was based at Surrey Park, the Loyal Kooyong Lodge played from 1929-30 to 1935-36 and never shifted out of C grade with a highest position of sixth. Their best player was Herb O'Reilly who took 146 wickets for the club.

1936-37 was the final season for Windsor Park. Forming in 1934-35, Windsor Park played as Manchester Unity in their first season before changing their name.

Although named after Windsor Crescent in Surrey Hills, Windsor Park played at Surrey Park, Windsor Park 'won' the C grade wooden spoon in their final season.

The season comprised of eleven rounds with A grade fielding nine teams, B grade twelve teams and C grade eleven teams. The fixturing concept of sections was retired from the BHRDCA.

After missing two years of cricket due to severe injury, Bernie Keenan returned to the fold as BHRDCA Secretary, also resuming his playing career with Box Hill.

A number of BHRDCA Legends retired after the 1935-36 season. These included Jack Plumb (Doncaster and East Doncaster 300 games and 5860 runs), Les Britt Snr (five clubs 310 games, 5161 runs and 623 wickets), William Rodgeron (Box Hill 215 games 4910 runs and 343 wickets), Jack Grant (Blackburn 225 games 3945 runs), Robert Brown (242 games 840 wickets), and Charles Rasmussen (Templestowe 273 games 677 wickets).

The BHRDCA defeated the MCC by 70 runs in the annual representative games. Laurie Tully from Doncaster took 5-21.

On the Friday night before the grand final, the Doncaster Coolstore erupted in flames, meaning that many of the East Doncaster players (who were playing in the A and C grade grand finals) stayed up all night fighting the blaze. Despite this, East Doncaster, led by 67, 3-32 and 6-55 from Harold Britt defeated St. Andrews outright by an innings and 25 runs to win their only A grade flag. Harold Britt took seventeen wickets in the final series. While Lyn Blair took fifteen wickets for St. Andrews.

A resurgent Mitcham won the B grade premiership by 3 wickets over St. Peters. Consistent batting by Lin Stacey (41, 42, 33 and 67) and A.Kennedy (26, 45, 34 and 53) over the final series proved crucial to Mitcham's win.

Templestowe's first XI was playing C grade and proved too strong for East Doncaster in the grand final winning by an innings and 64 runs. Eddie Mullens (84) and G.Cashen (125) added 208 for the second wicket to put the match beyond doubt.

Note: - Templestowe's 1936-37 scorebook is the earliest BHRDCA historian has accessed.

The A grade statistics continued to be dominated by familiar players. Tom Britt made 559 runs for East Doncaster and Harold Britt made 400 runs and took 31 wickets. With the ball Lyn Blair took 61 wickets and Joe Blair 48 wickets. Lou Sleeth took 47 wickets for Box Hill and Arthur Drummatt 46 wickets for Mont Albert.

In B grade Lin Stacey made 497 runs for Mitcham. With the ball Cyril Smith took 61 wickets for Doncaster Heights while stalwart William Colman took 48 wickets. BHRDCA and Vermont legend Jack Herring took 43 wickets for the season.

Box Hill High School's M. Brown made 643 runs in C grade which included scores of 163, 111ret and 104. Eddie Mullens made 549 runs for Templestowe. The Box Hill Methodist pair of R.Talbett (46 wickets) and V.Lear (46 wickets) led the C grade bowling, followed by Templestowe's Jack Cashen (45 wickets)

1937-38

During 1937 the Box Hill City council installed a turf wicket at Box Hill City Oval and Mont Albert Reserve. With the BHRDCA's blessing leading clubs moved across to turf competitions.

Joining the Reporter competition in 1930-31, Mont Albert were a rising force in the association when the left for ESCA in 1937-38. A second XI was formed in 1932-33 and they'd made A grade finals in three years from 1934-35 to 1936-37. Led by a strong opening pair of Garnet Armstrong and George Townsend, along with an excellent bowling attack, Mont Albert were ready for the next step.

Winning four ESCA A grade premierships from 1938-39 to 1944-45, Mont Albert won three more flags in the 1960's before waiting thirty years to win two successive Dunstan Shield flags in 1997-98 and 1998-99

On joining the ECA in 1999-00, Mont Albert First XI has made the Dunstan Shield finals eighteen out of twenty-six seasons. They are the most successful ESCA/ECA Dunstan Shield club with twelve premierships. Overall Mont Albert have won 23 ESCA premierships and 16 ECA premierships over the past ninety years.

Their story would not be complete without mentioning their years with the BHRDCA Vets. Mont Albert made eight A grade Vets grand finals in a row from 2001-02 to 2008-09, winning the first five and losing the next three. At one stage they were fielding four teams in the Vets.

In all, Mont Albert has won eleven BHRDCA Vets flags and they continue with the ECA Veterans competition which they joined in 2015-16.

Box Hill had started to struggle after significant success during the 1920's and took a different approach. A meeting was held between members and potential players from the Box Hill area. This resulted in the core playing groups of Box Hill, Box Hill Methodist and St. Andrews moving across to the newly constituted Box Hill club that joined the Victorian Junior Cricket Association (VJCA).

Box Hill Reporter District Cricket Association Inc

The foundation club of the Reporter competition Box Hill members such as John Toon, James Steele, William Meader and Phil Plaisted were driving forces behind the formation of the competition in 1890 and its reformation in 1902-03. With players like Meader and Paul Schober, Box Hill won premierships in 1890-91 and 1892-93 then in 1903-04 shared with Old Mitcham.

Lean years followed but with players such as Fred Weise, William Rogerson and Arthur Jones, Box Hill rose to prominence on winning the 1916-17 A grade flag. From sixteen years from 1916-17 to 1931-32, Box Hill played in A grade finals thirteen seasons and won flags in 1922-23, 1925-26 and 1926-27. A highlight was S.B.Gravenell making 238 in the last round of the 1919-20 season, holding a record that was only equalled in the 1976-77 Shield Grand Final.

The second XI, led by Vic Collier, was the strongest in the competition and they won B grade in 1922-23, 1923-24, 1925-26 and 1930-31. After merging with the Box Hill ANA in 1933-34 the clubs' future looked assured, but their decline was swift and although they narrowly missed the finals in 1936-37, their playing strength had declined through the retirement of the Rodgers, Weise and Collier families.

On the installation of the turf wicket at City Oval, Box Hill created a new constitution which was effectively a new club and recruited leading cricketers within the district. Box Hill's recruiting strategy was aggressive, and they targeted other local clubs such as St. Andrews (Joe and Lyn Blair, Jock Andrews), Box Hill Combined, Box Hill Methodists (Max Birtles, W.Starling and Jack Jago) and Box Hill Wattles with many players joining the new club.

Starting with the VJCA in 1937-38, Box Hill moved to ESCA in 1948-49. After a slow start they made the A turf finals ten times from 1952-53 to 1963-64, winning four premierships in 1952-53, 1953-54, 1956-57 and 1963-64.

In 1964-65, Box Hill joined the VSDCA where they still play. They shared top-grade premierships in 1986-87 and 2007-08

St. Andrews initially entered a side into the BHRDCA but once it became apparent that their leading players such as Joe Blair, Lyn Blair, Jock Andrews (named Box Hill captain) and others had joined the new Box Hill turf club, St. Andrews withdrew their teams. After one season in limbo, St. Andrews entered a side in the Churches competition in 1938-39.

The St. Andrews Presbyterian cricket club was formed in 1921-22 and after a slow start became a leading club in the Reporter.

St. Andrews finished runners-up in B grade in 1927-28 and were promoted to A grade in 1929-30, fielding two teams by 1931-32.

St. Andrews then made A grade finals five out of the next six years, winning the flag in 1933-34 and runners-up in 1935-36 and 1936-37.

The reconstitution of the Box Hill club and the installation of the turf wicket at Box Hill City Oval meant that leading players such as Joe Blair, Lyn Blair and Jock Andrews tried their hand at Box Hill. Such was the impact, St. Andrews could not field a side and withdrew at the start of the 1937-38 season.

St. Andrews enjoyed the skills of outstanding players such as Joe Blair (359 wickets), Lyn Blair (2680 runs and 344 wickets), Jock Andrews (2577 runs) and Art Luke (2756 runs).

The club regrouped and reformed in 1938-39, joining the Eastern Churches competition. After a recess between 1946 to 1953, St. Andrews fielded two sides in the lower grades of the Churches competition. Their only premiership was in C1 grade in 1965-66.

St. Andrews returned to the BHRDCA in 1971-72.

Although records are kept separate, the two versions of St. Andrews (1921 to 1937 then 1991 to 1984) are recognised as the same club.

The Box Hill Methodists were impacted with players such as Max Birtles, Alan Williams, Jack Jago and William Starling joining the Box Hill club. As a result, Box Hill Methodists were reduced to one side in A grade, which struggled.

Of the Box Hill playing group, both Lou and Graham Sleeth joined, whereas Bernie Keenan left to play with St. Peters. As Keenan was on the BHRDCA committee, he preferred to stay with the competition. Bert Toogood (Blackburn) and Laurie Tully (Doncaster) also moved to Box Hill.

The only new club to join was the Blackburn Church of Christ while Surrey Hill CYMS withdrew for the next few seasons before returning.

As a result of these changes the BHRDCA was reduced to 25 teams from 33 in 1936-37.

A grade fielded seven teams with Mitcham promoted after winning B grade the previous season, along with Vermont. B grade included ten teams and C grade eight teams. Templestowe were promoted to B grade from C grade.

Blackburn was relegated to B grade; the only time this has happened in their 135 years in the BHRDCA.

There were eleven rounds with the grand finals played over the first three weeks in April. An outright win was worth five points and a first innings win three points.

More legends retired after the 1936-37 season with Doncaster's John Tully retiring after 33 seasons. Len Bullen retired after playing 227 games, 5921 runs after playing at four different clubs. Canterbury legend Sid Mackie retired after 196 games, 5080 runs and 210 wickets.

East Doncaster and the Box Hill Church of Christ dominated but lost their A grade semi-finals to Canterbury and Mitcham. Canterbury then went on to win their twelfth and final A grade premiership defeating Mitcham by an innings and eight runs. H. O'Connor took nine wickets for the match.

Templestowe's first XI made it two in a row with a 97-run win over St. Peters in the B grade grand final.

Top side Box Hill Hibernians was lucky to win their C grade semi-final over Box Hill High School. It took Joe Cain's 7-30 and 48 in the second innings to get the Hibernians over the line after trailing by twenty runs. They had no such luck in the grand final with the Box Hill Wattles bowling the Hibernians out for 37 to win by 44 runs. A. Lacey took 5-27 and 4-21 to win the game for the Wattles.

Box Hill Reporter District Cricket Association Inc

East Doncaster's Britt brothers dominated A grade with Harold (524 runs and 36 wickets), Tom (565 runs and 38 wickets), and Les Jnr (40 wickets) having superb seasons. Tom made 126no and 107no during the year. winning his third consecutive A grade batting award. Clyde Ingram (516 runs) and Keith Silvers (411 runs) led the way for Canterbury while the Box Hill Church of Christ's Maurie Neilsen (581 runs with scores of 129no and 112no) and Keith Neilsen (469 runs) were also outstanding.

In B grade, Templestowe's Eddie Mullens made 607 runs. H. O'Connor was rewarded with his 543 B grade runs with a spot in the A grade premiership side where he was arguably player of the match. C.Johnson from Box Hill City took 55 wickets while Bernie Keenan made 335 runs and took 54 wickets for St. Peters.

Joe Cain dominated C grade with a BHRDCA record 1072 runs and 55 wickets. Cain made five centuries with scores of 155no, 129, 126no, 112no, 102no and 93.

Lindsay McDowell made 491 runs and took 34 wickets for Doncaster Triangle. The Box Hill High School trio of M.Brown (425 runs including 201 not out), K.Nicol (62 wickets) and R.Shalles (59 wickets) led the Box Hill High School into the C grade finals while H.Robertson (404 runs and 51 wickets) was a crucial part of Box Hill Wattles premiership side.

Prior to start of the 1938-39, reigning premiers, Canterbury advised that a turf wicket had been installed at their home ground, and they would leave to join ESCA.

Formed in the 1880's, Canterbury was one of the foundation clubs of the Reporter competition. Upon winning the Eastern District Trophy in 1898-99 and 1899-1900, Canterbury eventually won 12 A grade Reporter premierships and 17 overall in the competition. With legendary players such as BHRDCA President Harry Swan, Sid Mackie, Billy Lachlan (196 games and 5644 runs) and Tom Alway (385 wickets), who were followed by Keith Silvers (2285 runs in six seasons) and Clyde Ingram (3202 runs and 235 wickets), Canterbury had the ability to do just enough during the home and away season to make the finals, then lift in both semi and grand finals. Their A grade record of twelve premierships remains second behind Mitcham's thirteen in 2025.

From 1921-22 to 1937-38, Canterbury only missed A grade finals in 1926-27 and won eight A grade premierships during this period. In all they were top two in the competition on twenty-one occasions and won both A and B grade in 1927-28.

On joining ESCA in 1938-39, Canterbury won A turf flags in 1940-41, 1945-46 and 1947-48. With the arrival of players such as Mick Maguire in the early 1970's, Canterbury won Dunstan Shield flags in 1973-74, 1977-78, 1978-79 and 1980-81. In all they won eighteen ESCA premierships.

Since joining the ECA in 1999-00, Canterbury has won a further five premierships including Wright Shield in 1916-17. They finished Dunstan Shield runners-up in 1919-20, before being relegated after the 2024-25 season.

Another of the ECA clubs playing BHRDCA Vets, Canterbury's over 50's team was dominant winning five Legends premierships from seven grand finals in the period 2009-10 to 2015-16, only losing grand finals to Doncaster twice. Canterbury continued with the VCV competition from 2017-18, fielding teams in the Over 50's and Over 60's.

The final four from B grade in 1937-38 (Box Hill City, Doncaster Heights, St. Peters and Templestowe) were all promoted to A grade to enable an eight-team competition. This was the first time that Box Hill City and St. Peter's had entered teams in A grade. Both Vermont and the Box Hill Methodists were relegated to B grade with the Methodists struggling after losing so many players to the Box Hill turf club from the previous season

The Box Hill Hibernians, Box Hill Wattles and Box Hill High School were all promoted to B grade from C grade with Box Hill South Progress dropping the 'Progress' from their name (although BHRDCA records will retain the 'Progress' in records to avoid confusion with Box Hill South).

In C grade, Blackburn re-entered a second XI and the competition now had three grades of eight teams each making twenty-four teams in all. The St. Andrews club who had folded in early 1937-38 had reformed and joined the Eastern Churches competition.

On the player front, Maurice Nielsen and Keith Nielsen both started the season with Box Hill but returned to the Box Hill Church of Christ in round 6, joining new player Robert Pettifer to create a formidable line-up. Cedric Crouch, returned to his original club Doncaster Heights to finish his thirty-year career. At Box Hill Wattles H.Robertson did not continue from 1937-38, and Frank Barker made his BHRDCA debut for Box Hill South Progress.

On the retirement front was Bert Bullen who stopped playing after 315 games with five clubs and Wally Adams who started in 1909 and played 288 games. Both had played with the three main Doncaster clubs – Doncaster, Doncaster Heights and East Doncaster.

With the departure of several clubs, East Doncaster had a clear run at the A grade premiership. In an early round they defeated St. Peters for 9, winning by an innings and 296 runs. Tom Britt making 161 and taking 6-0. But it all came to a dramatic halt.

The below extract is from BHRDCA minutes held in the Nunawading historical society.

12 Dec 38

The report of Umpires Halleren & Marsh on the East Doncaster versus Mitcham match was then read. Both umpires reported Harold Britt, Dudley Britt & Les Britt for misconducting themselves on the field and umpire Halleren added personal assault to the charge against Harold Britt.

Box Hill Reporter District Cricket Association Inc

Although requested to be present, Umpire Halleren did not attend. Umpire Marsh, in being called gave evidence of abusive language and disputing umpires decisions by the 3 men reported arising out of a decision of "not out" from Umpire Halleren for a stumping off the bowling of Harold Britt. This player walked down the wicket and questioning Umpire Halleren's decision also pushed him in the forehead with his open hand. The captain of the East Doncaster team (Rupert Zerbe) who is also the team's wicketkeeper was present when he (Umpire Marsh) intimated to the 3 players that they would be reported.

On the motion of Messrs Williams and Tully it was decided to hear the players singly.

Harold Britt on being called admitted the substance of the report except that he only touched the umpires has and was also not aware that he had been reported until he received the secretary's notice. Les Britt was then called and denied everything including seeing Harold Britt walk down the wicket to the umpire.

The meeting then voted that the three players be found guilty of all charges - Carried Ossie Allpress moved the motion, seconded by C.White that Harold Britt be disqualified until the end of the present season. - Carried

R.Redman moved the motion, seconded by B.Henderson that Les Britt be found guilty of abusive language and disputing umpires' decision and be stood down for the next two matches. - Carried

B.Henderson moved the motion, seconded by A.Webb that Dudley Britt be found guilty of abusive language and disputing the umpire's decision and be stood down for the next two matches. After hearing the verdict, Harold Britt intimated that he would appeal and then used an offensive expression to delegate J.Williams of Mitcham.

Roy Tully then moved the motion, seconded by A.Webb that Harold Britt be asked to apologise to the meeting and to J.Williams. An apology was tendered to the meeting but was refused by J.Williams.

Messrs W.Ward and W.Clarke moved that a special meeting of the association be called to deal with Harold Britt for his conduct at this meeting. - Lost

A.Green then moved the motion, seconded by R.Redmond that Harold Britt be disqualified until December 31st, 1939.

An amendment to this motion moved by Roy Tully and B.Henderson that Harold Britt be disqualified until December 31st, 1939, and further until such time as he apologizes to J.Williams through the association. Amendment Carried, Original Motion - Lost.

9 Jan 39

Messrs J.Carey & Ben Crouch moved that Dudley Britt be advised that the Executive Committee consider his letter to the association unsatisfactory and ask for a satisfactory reply. Messrs Ward and Allpress moved an amendment that Dudley Britt be disqualified during the pleasure of the association and until such time as he apologises for his previous letter. Motion - Lost, Amendment - Carried.

C.Offer moved the motion, seconded by A.Cahill that the association allow the disqualification of Harold Britt to stand. Motion - Carried.

13 Feb 39

Messrs Woods & Keenan moved that the Secretary be instructed to write to East Doncaster asking their reasons (in writing) for not continuing their 'A' Grade matches.

After the initial report in round five, East Doncaster forfeited the remainder of the season, although their second XI continued and went onto win the C grade premiership.

This left the door open for Box Hill Church of Christ and with new player Robert Pettifer dominating early (he made 141 and 110no in successive matches), and Keith and Maurie Neilsen returning after Christmas, they charged home to defeat Templestowe by an innings and 21 runs in the grand final. Maurie Nielsen made 69 not out and 172 in a dominant final series. This was Templestowe's third successive grand final after winning C and B grade in the previous two seasons.

Blackburn surprised by winning the B grade grand final over the highly fancied Box Hill Hibernians by 123 runs. Joe Cain had dominated the season and made 137 in the semi-final win over the Box Hill Wattles, but he made only 0 and 3 the grand final.

In a thrilling C grade grand final, East Doncaster recovered from a forty-run deficit to win outright by one run. Arti Peter-Budge was the hero, taking eight wickets for the match and 51 in the second innings run-chase.

Returning at Christmas, Maurie Neilsen made 501 runs to pass Robert Pettifer with 493 runs and 35 wickets. W.Clarke cemented the Church of Christ dominance with 46 wickets. Keith Neilsen made 330 runs including 178no in his first game back.

In B grade Joe Cain made 690 runs and took 40 wickets for the Box Hill Hibernians. After Christmas he made 82, 103, 76, 103 and 137 before failing in the grand final. A. Lacey from the Box Hill Wattles made 575 runs and Blackburn's Les Warne made 567 runs and took 32 wickets. W.Shields took 66 wickets for Blackburn while Frank Barker took 47 wickets in his first season for the Box Hill South Progress.

The leading run-scorer in C grade was Lindsay McDowell with 522 runs for Doncaster Triangle which included two tons. Collingwood footballer Charlie Pannam was next best with 432 runs. The East Doncaster pair of Jim Beavis (49 wickets) and Arti-Budge (40 wickets) led C grade with Peter-Budge taking 15-55 against Doncaster during the season.

1939-40

Prior to the start of the season England declared war on Germany and World War II. Although the impact on Australia was not immediate, it quickly made an impact on all aspects of Australian life.

After the controversial events of 1938-39 (when the Britt brothers were given a long suspensions), East Doncaster left the BHRDCA and joined ESCA to play in their A Matting competition. They returned after WWII when the protagonist's had left to play at Deepdene.

Box Hill Reporter District Cricket Association Inc

Another three clubs disappeared with the Blackburn Church of Christ merging with Blackburn, while both Box Hill Central and the Box Hill Wattles folded.

Based at Surrey Park, the Box Hill Wattles were formed in 1925-26 and spent fourteen seasons with the BHRDCA, mainly in C grade.

The Wattles won the C grade flag in 1932-33 and were promoted to B grade before being relegated in 1935-36. The Wattles responded with making finals in their last four seasons and winning another C grade premiership in 1937-38.

After spending 1938-39 in B grade and making semi-finals, they folded.

The playing highlight was Frank Hayes with 799 runs in 1931-32. H.Laurance is recorded with 227 wickets for the club.

Box Hill South formed in 1929-30 and started in C grade before being promoted to B grade in 1932-33. The leading player was T.Meehan who took 54 wickets in 1930-31 and 45 wickets in 1931-32, ending with 122 wickets for the club.*

Box Hill South and Eastern Diaries (one season in B grade in 1934-35) merged in 1935-36 to form the Box Hill Centrals. They won the CII grade premiership in their first season with W.Smith making 46 and 116 in the semi-final, then taking eight wickets in the grand final.

Promoted to B grade, after winning the wooden spoon in 1938-39, the Central folded

Leading players in their four seasons were W.Smith (1146 runs and 117 runs) and J.Morgan (1271 runs and 120 wickets)

Vermont dropped their second XI, shifting their first XI from A grade to C grade and Surrey Hills CYMS rejoined after a couple of seasons away. The competition was now reduced to twenty teams after having 42 teams in 1934-35.

Blackburn was promoted back to A grade and fielded three teams, while St. Peters and Box Hill City were relegated to B grade. Both Box Hill Hibernians and Box Hill High School were relegated to C grade which was surprising with the Hibernians playing in the 1938-39 B grade grand final and that they had one of the competitions most damaging players – Joe Cain – in their mix.

Box Hill applied to join the sub-district competition from the VJCA.

On the playing front Athol Reed joined the Box Hill Methodists, as did W.Smith from the Box Hill Central. The Methodists had struggled after many of their players went to the Box Hill turf club and these two players turned their fortunes around. The only player of note to retire was R. Greening after 437 wickets from only 137 games with four Box Hill based clubs.

It was a dominant performance by the Box Hill Church of Christ in 1939-40 and they went onto win the premiership with a seven wicket win over a tough opponent in Blackburn. Maurie Nielsen made 148 and 54 in the final series, while Keith Nielsen made 82 not out in the grand final and took 13 wickets across the two finals. Blackburn gave opposition through Les Warne, W. Shiels and R. Luff during the final series.

The unlucky St. Peters lost their third grand final in four attempts in B grade. After making 364 and thrashing Box Hill South Progress in the semi-final by 278 runs, St. Peters lost by three wickets to the Box Hill Methodists. The Methodists were helped by W.Smith who made 50, 82 and 24 in the finals, while Athol Reed took match figures of 7-48 in the semi-final and 11-106 in the grand final.

The equally unlucky Box Hill Hibernians finally won C grade with a comeback win over Vermont. The attack of Joe Cain, V. Lear and J. Kiker took all twenty wickets between them to share the spoils for the Hibernians. Charlie Pannam made 78 and took seven wickets for Vermont.

Three Box Hill Church of Christ players dominated the season like no-one before or after from the one club. Keith Nielsen made 923 runs and took 69 wickets. This included scores of 129, 120no, 94, 93no, 82no, 67, 62 and 51. Keith took five wickets in an innings on six occasions. Maurie Nielsen made 726 runs with scores of 148, 122, 82, 63 and 54. Finally, Robert Pettifer made 583 runs and took 34 wickets with scores of 113, 103, 81no, 56 and 56. For Blackburn, Les Warne made 489 runs and took 35 wickets.

In B grade, A. McKibbin led the runs with 516 for St. Peters. Athol Reed took 58 wickets for Box Hill Methodists, J.Jones 56 wickets for Box Hill South Progress and N. Falconer 46 wickets for St. Peters.

For the Box Hill Hibernians in C grade, Joe Cain made 723 runs with scores of 92, 79, 175, 94, 74 and 59. J. Kiker was the dominant bowler with 77 wickets taking seven five-fors during the season and proving to be the match winner in the grand final.

1940-41

By 1940-41 the BHRDCA was reduced to fourteen clubs fielding sixteen teams. C grade was put into recess and A, and B grade included eight teams each that played eleven rounds. Four teams were promoted to A grade with the Box Hill Hibernians, Box Hill Methodists, Box Hill South Progress and St. Peters all moving up. Doncaster were relegated while both Templestowe and Surrey Hills CYMS went into recess.

Players moved clubs with Templestowe's Eddie Mullens playing at Doncaster Heights, Jack Herring (Vermont) playing the season with Mitcham and William Colman playing with Blackburn. Wally Lennox made his debut at Box Hill South Progress, while Sid Barker joined the Box Hill Church of Christ.

The Box Hill Church of Christ club became the first club to win three successive 'A Grade' flags from 1938-39 to 1940-41 and had three of the best players in competition history in Bob Pettifer, Keith Nielson and Maurie Nielson. In 1940-41, Robert Pettifer took 19 wickets in the final series, while Maurie Nielson (116) and Keith Nielson (108) both made tons in the grand final win over Mitcham with Box Hill Church of Christ posting 9-430 which was the highest grand final score in BHRDCA to that time. By winning their third premiership the Box Hill Church of Christ 'won' the Nutting & Young Shield.

Box Hill City won their second flag with an 115-run win over Mitcham in the B grade grand final. C.Johnson took ten wickets for the match for the winners.

Despite WWII several dominant players had great seasons in A grade. Robert Pettifer made 864 runs and took 60 wickets for the Box Hill Church of Christ. Pettifer made the BHRDCA's second highest score of 218no against St. Peters along with scores of 129, 87 and 87no. He also took five wickets in an innings on six occasions. Keith Neilsen made 513 runs including 147 and 108, While Athol Reed made 560 runs for the Box Hill Methodists which included seven fifties. Joe Cain posted 518 runs the Box Hill Hibernians and is recorded with 3003 runs in only four seasons since 1937-38. The leading wicket-takers were Alan Barelli with 48 wickets for Mitcham and J. Kiker with 47 wickets for the Box Hill Hibernians.

In B grade, Dave Boyle made 52 runs for Vermont, and Les Graham made 352 runs and took 35 wickets for Box Hill City. A. Archibald from Doncaster took 69 wickets and the City's C. Johnson took 54 wickets.

1941-42

The BHRDCA continued with two grades, with A grade fielding seven teams and B grade six teams playing eleven rounds. The Box Hill City was promoted to A grade while the Box Hill Hibernians went into recess with Joe Cain playing for the Canterbury Free Gardeners. The Doncaster Triangle also went into recess but Box Hill South Progress and Box Hill High School both folded.

A team from the Box Hill High School entered the competition in 1931-32 and were placed in C grade. After making finals in both 1937-38 and 1939-40 they were promoted to B grade on both occasions. After ten seasons they folded in 1941.

Their leading player was M.Brown who made 1245 runs at an average of 54.13. Brown made five centuries including a score of 201no in 1937-38

Not to be confused with the Box Hill South club, the Box Hill South Progress were formed by what was one of the many progress associations in Melbourne during the early 1930's. Progress associations were essentially lobby groups that were non-political but served their local community as Melbourne transformed to suburbia.

Starting in 1932-33, the Progress were a B grade club that played until 1940-41. Entering a second XI in 1935-36, they finished runners-up in C II grade in 1935-36.

The leading player was A.Elliott who made 1579 runs and took 116 wickets. Elliott made 675 runs and took 45 wickets in 1935-36.

In 1938-39, BHRDCA legend Frank Barker made his debut for the club. Barker took 106 wickets in three seasons before the Progress folded.

With changes to club, players continued to move around with the Doncaster Triangle players moving to either Doncaster Heights or Doncaster and Box Hill Hibernian players moving to the returned Surrey Hills CYMS. Mitcham were bolstered by the debut of both Jack Davin and George Axup. The Box Hill Church of Christ lost both Keith and Murie Nielsen, although Robert Pettifer played a couple of matches.

Retired players included Les Graham who made 4329 runs and took 449 wickets across 172 games with four clubs, finishing with Box Hill City's B grade premiership side from 1940-41. Robert Williamson retired from Doncaster Heights after 520 wickets from 252 matches.

Coverage had declined due to WWII and by February was non-existent. In A grade the Box Hill Methodists defeated St. Peters by ten wickets to win their first A grade flag while Doncaster beat Surrey Hills CYMS by an innings in B grade.

The dominant player was Athol Reed with 554 runs for the Methodists. Roy Read made 381 runs for Doncaster Heights while Robert Pettifer made scores of 144 and 110 from his four matches. With the ball, George Axup took 44 wickets.

In B grade, Ossie Turner made 635 for Canterbury Free Gardeners while Arti Peter-Budge took 73 wickets for Doncaster. Peter-Budge had joined Doncaster, as his club East Doncaster was in recess during the war.

1942-43

With the newspapers only covering St. Peters matches (thanks to player and BHRDCA Secretary Bernie Keenan), the summary of the season comes from the BHRDCA Annual Report which describes the season by explaining that with the difficulties of teams being able to field the same players over a two week period, the competition changed to a one-day competition with each side having 95 minutes at the crease. There was no ladder published and no semi-finals with the grand final played as a two-day game on 13th and 20th March 1943.

Eight clubs remained and only A grade was formed. The Box Hill City moved to ESCA while the Box Hill Church of Christ went into recess. Mitcham also went into recess and Doncaster withdrew in November. Canterbury Free Gardeners were joined by Joe Cain and A. Archibald.

Jack Herring returned to Vermont while Les Read made his debut at Doncaster Heights.

Vermont won their first A grade premiership beating the unlucky St. Peters by two runs. This was the fifth time St. Peters had lost a grand final in the past seven seasons. This was Jack Herring's only A grade flag for Vermont, while Bernie Keenan's 55 was not enough for St. Peters.

Athol Reed dominated the season with 680 runs and 46 wickets.

1943-44

The BHRDCA continued with one grade of eight teams. Mitcham and the Box Hill Church of Christ returned after one season. Surrey Hills CYMS withdrew again. The BHRDCA continued with the one-day format and twenty-one rounds were fixtured and a full set of finals.

Box Hill Reporter District Cricket Association Inc

Coverage improved from 1942-43 and the premiership was won by the Box Hill Methodists by thirteen runs over Mitcham despite 61no from Jack Davin in the run chase. Mitcham had now finished runners-up twice and third thrice in the past five seasons. Athol Reed capped off his record-breaking season with 43 and 6-35 in the grand final.

1943-44 was all about Athol Reed. Reed broke all records with 1326 runs and 47 wickets in the season, which included a record six centuries. His scores were 37, 10, 81, 135no, 100, 9, 24, 115, 101, 72, 115no, 22, 2, 59, 18, 77, 46, 73no, 137no and 43 and his best bowling was in the grand final.

Other had outstanding seasons with Laurie Tully making 770 runs for Doncaster Heights, George Axup 448 runs and 54 wickets for Mitcham, Jack Davin 539 runs for the Mitcham and the Box Hill Church of Christ pair of Gordon Gray (529 runs) and W.Slessar (528 runs) passing the 500 runs mark.

1944-45

It was a shock to the competition when incumbent President, Harry Swan passed away in 1944. Swan was replaced by A. Cahill, while Roy Tully moved up the Vice-President role. Ossie Allpress came in as Treasurer.

All clubs returned from 1943-44 with both Doncaster and Templestowe returning to the competition. Mitcham also fielded a No.2 side which was expected to be their second XI, but Mitcham had underestimated the quality of players such as Jack Davin and J.Beckhurst and the playing groups were realigned at Christmas making Mitcham No.2 their first XI.

The biggest club to return was East Burwood who left after the 1921-22 season to join the Burwood District Cricket Association. East Burwood won seven A grade premierships during their time in that competition, winning premierships in 1924-25, 1928-29, 1934-35, 1936-37, 1937-38, 1938-39 and 1939-40. Their final season was in 1940-41 before they went into recession.

A grade fielded twelve teams playing eleven rounds.

Both Percy Chivers and Ernie Mullens returned to Templestowe who had reformed after several seasons in hiatus. Players to make their debut were Bernie Fitzsimons and Lee Smith from Templestowe, while Frank Barker joined Box Hill Church of Christ and Les Read moved to Templestowe from Doncaster Heights.

1943-44 was the last season for William Colman who after twenty years and 321 games retired. Starting with Warrandyte in 1912-13, Colman moved to Blackburn in 1923-24, Doncaster in 1924-25 for two seasons, the Box Hill ANA in 1926-27 then back to Warrandyte in 1927-28. In 1928-29 he moved to Doncaster Heights, then to East Doncaster in 1929-30 and back to Doncaster Heights in 1930-31. In eight seasons, Colman changed clubs seven times. Colman settled into Doncaster Heights before spending one season at East Doncaster in 1935-36, then back to the Heights in 1936-37. Colman moved to Blackburn in 1940-41 where he ended his playing days. In all, Colman changed clubs ten times. He made 5341 runs and took 673 wickets.

East Burwood won their first A grade premiership in their first season back with the BHRDCA. Scoring 376 over Templestowe in the semi-final was followed by a convincing eight wicket win over the Box Hill Church of Christ in the grand final. The Fankhauser brothers both took five-fors, and it was only the efforts of Ray McIntosh (67 and five wickets) that kept the Church of Christ in the game. McIntosh took 6-80 in their semi-final win over the fancied Mitcham.

It was another big year for the batsmen with Doncaster Heights' Laurie Tully (669 runs), Mitcham's Jack Davin (595 runs), Box Hill Church of Christ's W. Slessar (505 runs) and Templestowe J.P.Cashen (463 runs included 158 and 119no) having fine season. Mitcham all-rounder George Axup (488 runs and 51 wickets) and East Burwood Norm Mullens (463 runs and 42 wickets) featured prominently. Templestowe's Percy Chivers (54 wickets) and Jack Cashen (48 wickets) combined well, while East Burwood's W.Fankhauser took 49 wickets.

World War WII ended in September 1945, and the government did what they could to return life to normal, although rations continued to be a factor for several years yet.

The Tunstall cricket club returned in 1945-46 having last played with the BHRDCA in 1935-36. On 1 November 1945, the name location name Tunstall was replaced by Nunawading with the creation of the City of Nunawading. This resulted in changes to the Railway Station and Postal Office while the cricket club started to consider the change for the following season.

The number of teams increased from twelve to eighteen and as a result B Grade returned. East Burwood, Mitcham, Templestowe and Vermont all fielded second XI's, while Tunstall also fielded two sides. The Canterbury Free Gardeners and Doncaster were relegated to B grade, while Blackburn Church of Christ returned.

One of the greatest players in the competition made his debut in 1945-46 with Keith Read joining his five older brothers at Templestowe. Wally Lennox joined St. Peters after playing the Box Hill South Progress in earlier seasons.

BHRDCA secretary, Bernie Keenan retired before the start of the season after an outstanding career with several clubs before finishing up with St. Peters.

This was Mitcham legend Lou Barelli's final season. Barelli made his debut in 1902-03 and played 334 games with Mitcham, Ringwood and Doncaster. Barelli made 5282 runs and took 757 wickets.

Another well-known figure to retire was Richard Tainton from East Burwood and Blackburn who played 249 matches, made 4794 runs and took 503 wickets.

Box Hill Reporter District Cricket Association Inc

The magnificent career of Cedric Crouch also ended after forty years. Crouch played 409 games, made 6763 runs and competition record to the time of 1,160 wickets.

East Burwood won their second A grade premiership with an innings win over the Box Hill Methodists. It was a team effort with the Mullens and Fankhauser brothers all contributing. East Burwood had now won five A grade premiership in a row after winning three successive premierships in the Burwood competition.

No scores were found for B grade, but the Canterbury Free Gardeners won their first flag, defeating Doncaster.

With poor coverage, player statistics were not as high as previous years. W.Slessar made 473 runs for Box Hill Church of Christ and Athol Reed made 413 runs for Box Hill Methodists. Templestowe's Percy Chivers made 243 runs and took 45 wickets.

Coverage was poorer for B grade, and the only players of note were Ossie Turner (502 runs for Canterbury Free Gardeners) and N. Petty who took 44 wickets for Doncaster.

1946-47 to 1975-76 (to be expanded)

By the second half of the 1940's, the BHRDCA had started to return to its late 1930's numbers with East Burwood (1944-45), East Doncaster (1947-48) and Tunstall returning to the competition; with Tunstall changing their name to Nunawading in 1947-48. The same season saw Ray McIntosh take 123 wickets for St. Andrews Combine in C grade.

In 1948-49 the BHRDCA introduced an under 16 grade. By 1949-50, there were 22 clubs represented with 34 teams including new clubs such as the Doncaster Footballers (1949-50) and Meadow (1948-49) who made their presence felt in the lower grades. This was also Joe Cain's last season with the Box Hill Hibernians. At this time, Cain had made the most centuries in the competition (twenty) and ended his career with 7328 runs.

'D Grade' was introduced in 1950-51 which was the same season that Warrandyte returned to the competition. Mitcham became the first club to win three premierships in a season with wins in A, B and D grade.

In 1951-52 Doncaster and Doncaster Heights merged. This season saw Mitcham lead East Burwood on the first innings of the A grade grand final, but refuse to play on the third day, forfeiting the match under BHRDCA rules.

In 1953-54, Ray McIntosh was elected BHRDCA Secretary, which was Bernie Keenan's last season as BHRDCA President after serving seventeen years on the BHRDCA committee.

During the period 1944-45 to 1954-55 the competition was dominated by Mitcham and East Burwood who won eleven 'A Grade' flags between them.

In 1955-56, the Doncaster Footballers won the 'A Grade' flag which signalled the end of the dominance by Mitcham and East Burwood. In a performance rarely equalled, the Footballers' Keith Read made 126 and took 6-46 in the semi-final against Vermont, followed by 124 and 5-29 against Blackburn in the grand final. In 1957-58 Nunawading won their first 'A Grade' flag which was followed two years later by Blackburn with their second 'A Grade' flag, their first since 1932-33. Blackburn and Nunawading dominated the top-level of competition from the mid 1950's to late 1960's. The Doncaster Footballers were unlucky enough to lose five A grade Grand Finals over the same period.

In 1955-56, Doncaster left the competition and joined the ESCA after the installation of a turf wicket at Schramm's Reserve. They changed their name to Doncaster Districts, finally merging with Fitzroy in 1986 to form Fitzroy-Doncaster. Warrandyte celebrated their centenary in January 1956 with a game against a VCA side that included Australia test players Bill Ponsford and Jack Iverson.

The Box Hill Hibernians folded at the start of the 1955-56 season while both the Box Hill Methodists and Blackburn Church of Christ clubs left the competition for the Eastern Churches competition at the end of the 1956-57 season, and a few other smaller clubs also fell by the wayside.

At the start of the 1957-58 season the BHRDCA fielded 31 sides between four grades and fifteen clubs. Blackburn, East Burwood and Mitcham were the only club fielding three sides or more. In comparison, the Eastern Churches fielded 59 sides between 48 clubs and five grades, while ESCA fielded 69 teams between six grades (inc. three turf grades) from 38 clubs. The Burwood competition was smaller with 20 teams from fourteen clubs.

The introduction of Forest Hill (1955-56), the Box Hill Adelphians (East Box Hill) (1956-57), St. Luke's (1958-59) and Bulleen (1960-61) reversed the decline in clubs within the BHRDCA. By the early 1960's these four clubs were fielding multiple sides and the competition that had stagnated through the 1950's started to expand as did the City of Nunawading which was adding 1500 houses to the municipality every year.

In 1957-58, Templestowe's Les Stoneham took a BHRDCA record 10 for 13 against East Doncaster in D grade. In 1958-59 the current points system of 10 points for an Outright and 6 points for a first innings win was adopted.

In 1960-61 there were still only 38 teams, but by 1964-65 there were 52 teams. In 1962 the BHRDCA left the CUOV over a disagreement with Umpire's fees. The development of housing estates with extended suburbia, and the collapse of the Burwood District C.A. in 1968 contributed to the BHRDCA's growth between 1960 and 1975. The BHRDCA rejoined the CUOV (VMCU) in 1978 and has remained a member to the present day.

After winning the B grade premiership in 1960-61, Bulleen won every A grade home and away game in 1961-62 before losing the semi-final to Blackburn. Blackburn went on to win three premierships in A, C and D grades.

'C Grade' was split into 'C1' and 'C2 Grade' in 1963-64, which saw Bulleen break the Nunawading and Blackburn streak of 'A Grade' premierships. Bulleen were fortunate to win after John Wilkins was suspended by the BHRDCA tribunal for five years after incidents in the Semi Final. At one stage, the BHRDCA committee discussed kicking Bulleen out of the competition and while the subsequent delegates vote allowed Bulleen to stay, this resulted in both the President (Tom Reeves) and Secretary (Ray McIntosh) resigning their posts - albeit temporarily. Brockhoffs joined the BHRDCA, won the 1963-64 D grade premiership but then folded at the start of the following season.

The under 14 competition started in 1964-65 and Donvale joined the competition.

The competition continued to grow with the introduction of Parkview (Heatherdale) and St. David's in 1965-66. The Meadow club shifted their base from Surrey Hills to Blackburn North and changed their name to align with their new location. In 1966-67 B grade was divided into B1 and B2 grade while East Burwood Methodists and Doncaster Church of Christ joined the BHRDCA. Blackburn's Tom Cullen made 341 in the 1967-68 under 16 grand final.

The BHRDCA grew substantially in 1968-69 with the collapse of the Burwood District Cricket Association. This meant that the Burwood Socials, the Hartwell Baseballers, Hartwell Church of Christ, North Burwood and the Wattle Park Presbyterians all joined the competition along with new clubs Blackburn South High School, the Templestowe Footballers and Yarraleen. In the same season St. Peter's changed their name to Box Hill North and Parkview to Heatherdale. Both the Doncaster Footballers and East Burwood became the first clubs to field five senior sides.

The following was published in 11 September 1968 edition of the Nunawading Gazette.

Eight new clubs to join Reporter District cricket.

The BHRDCA will be strengthened by the inclusion of eight new clubs this season.

The new clubs will be:- Wattle Park Presbyterians; Burwood Socials; Hartwell Baseballers; North Burwood; Hartwell Church of Christ; Yarraleen; Templestowe Footballers; and Blackburn South High School.

Another highlight announced at the recent annual meeting was that East Burwood would become the first club to field five senior teams.

In other significant changes, St. Peter's Cricket Club will now be known as Box Hill North and Parkview as Heatherdale. The Reporter Cricket Club will return to Bennettswood ground again and the East Burwood Methodists will share the East Burwood No.3 ground with East Burwood's fifth XI.

All association office bearers were re-elected for 1968-69.

Association secretary, Ray McIntosh, said this week that with 66 senior teams and 39 junior teams, the Association becomes the fifth in existence with 100 or more teams. A bye still exists in D grade, but it was hoped that this would be overcome before the season starts on 5 October 1968.

Eleven rounds of two-day matches will be played including a full day's play on ANA Day.

In 1969-70, A grade was renamed A1 grade with an A2 grade entered in the slot between A1 and B1. The E-Bees (Eley Park) joined the competition while the Box Hill Adelphians started thinking about a new name for their club. Settling on Laburnum this raised the ire of the City of Box Hill who told the club they could not have a name that belonged in the City of Nunawading – so they eventually agreed on East Box Hill in 1971-72. With the demise of the Reporter newspaper in 1967, the Reporter club changed their name to Bennettswood – which is not to be confused with the club that eventually merged with East Burwood in 1994 and was previously known as the Wattle Park Presbyterians.

In 1970-71, Heatherdale and the Doncaster Footballers played in the A2 Grand Final which ended in an outright tie – with both teams sharing the premiership. Vermont ended the dominance of Blackburn and Nunawading by securing the 1970-71 A1 grade premiership. That all four Vermont teams finished last in their respective grades two years earlier made this an even more outstanding achievement.

D grade was split into D1 and D2 grade for the 1971-72 season and an under 12 grade was introduced. St. Luke's returned to the competition after leaving in 1966-67 while the Doncaster Footballers finally won their second top-level flag after finishing A Grade runners-up five times since 1955-56. Tragedy struck in the first round of the 1972-73 season when long-term BHRDCA administrator and Vermont stalwart Jack Herring collapsed and died on the pitch against East Doncaster. Donvale District, Mitcham YCW and Wattle Park joined the competition in 1972-73 which saw all East Burwood's five sides make finals. Forest Hill celebrated their first top-level premiership after seventeen years in the BHRDCA.

The BHRDCA expanded by thirteen teams in 1973-74, increasing from 91 to 104. After several years of discussion, Shield Grade was introduced and it was marked by a remarkable grand final, when Nunawading lost eight wickets in their second innings chasing a small target before gaining outright victory. Russell Baird took 14 wickets for Nunawading in a match-winning performance. In C1 grade Lutheran posted a BHRDCA grand final record of 9-511 to win a flag in their first season.

Donvale's turf wicket was finally ready, and they left the BHRDCA for a second time after 1973-74. Mitcham YCW also left the BHRDCA voluntarily after issues with their behaviour and their dislike for umpires (and other clubs!). But the controversy was left for the BHRDCA umpires and permits committee after they requested the BHRDCA expel E-Bees, St. Mary's and the Templestowe Footballers from the competition for financial and behavioural issues. These accusations were strenuously fought by all three clubs to no avail. The correspondence between parties suggests there was more to the story, but while E-Bees and Templestowe Footballers found new homes, St. Mary's were refused entry into the Eastern Churches competition. As a result of these departures the number of teams dropped to 97. The grading committee recommended the Shield Reserve grade which was adopted. This meant that Shield grade second

XI's were placed in this grade, while A1 and A2 grades were removed, with A grade returned to field the remaining first XI's. Shield Grade was won by East Burwood over Bulleen, who jumped up the ladder after the arrival of Max McColl who took 67 wickets for the season.

Bulleen and Warrandyte left the BHRDCA before the start of the 1975-76 season, while East Doncaster advised they would be leaving at the end of the season. The impact on the competition numbers was minor as Burwood Socials added a fifth team and several other clubs entered third and fourth XI's. After nineteen years in the doldrums, Mitcham charged home at the end of the season and thrashed Forest Hill by 399 runs in the Shield grand final with a score of 490. In D1 grade Bruce Davidson made 75 and 107 in the grand final as East Doncaster won the premiership in their last game with the BHRDCA. In D2 grade, Rob Smyth from Blackburn South High School played three matches and made 109 not out, 124 not out and 225 not out before disappearing.

1976-77

For 1976-77 the BHRDCA re-introduced the Shield Reserve grade, which was formally known as Shield 2nd grade. Like 1974-75, A1 and A2 grade combined to become A grade. Donvale District changed their name to Park Orchards, and the competition grew to 100 teams with a few clubs adding extra teams with Blackburn North, Mitcham and Vermont adding fifth XI's. The Shield grand final was won by Nunawading who piled on a grand final record score of 6-558 with ex Forest Hill player Ray Gale making 123 not out and Trevor Hutchins posting his legendary 238 not out which equalled the highest individual score in BHRDCA history.

1976-77 was Ray McIntosh's last season as BHRDCA secretary and the competition announced from 1977-78 that Shield grade would be known as McIntosh Shield in his honour. A third Shield grade was added meaning that the first, second and third XI's of the top twelve clubs were portioned into a grading structure that was extended from ten clubs. This was extended to A grade, with A1 and A2 re-introduced to field first and second XI's of the second-tier clubs. This meant that a club promoted to McIntosh Shield from A1 grade would take their top three teams to the higher level. Although D2 grade was removed as part of this reshuffle, there was a record 110 teams entered in 1977-78 with Vermont South joining the competition, although St. Luke's disbanded for the second and last time. Several established clubs changed their name, with East Burwood Methodists becoming East Burwood Uniting, Wattle Park Presbyterians becoming Bennettswood and Parks merging with Eastern Churches club Surrey Park to become Parks Combine. Blackburn North and East Burwood became the first clubs to field sixth XI's, while Blackburn, Forest Hill, Heatherdale and Nunawading all added fifth XI's. Forest Hill won their second top-grade flag with a score of 414 and a convincing win over Box Hill North. Rod Medland made 161 and took seven wickets in Forest Hill's victory. St. Davids won their second successive A grade flag, after not being promoted after 1976-77 as their third XI was not of standard for the McIntosh Shield third grade.

1978-79

Another ten teams were added in 1978-79 with D2 grade returned. Further restructure occurred with B1 and B2 becoming first and second XI grades for the third tier of clubs. E-Bee's were allowed back into the BHRDCA after being expelled in 1974 while Burwood Socials changed their name to Burwood District and added a sixth XI, as did Nunawading. The Doncaster Footballers also added a fifth XI. St. David's surprised many with a one wicket win over Mitcham in the McIntosh Shield grand final, which was a reward for players like Bruce Arthur who had been the competitions most consistent batsman for over a decade. St. David's first XI had won three successive premierships.

1979-80

Six ball overs were introduced in 1979-80 along with helmets being permitted. The cricket war between the Australia Cricket Board and Kerry Packer had been resolved and cricket moved into more modern times. The McIntosh Shield and A grades were balanced in 1979-80, with the five grades fielding ten sides each. The Doncaster Footballers and Heatherdale added sixth XI's with Blackburn South High School adding a fifth XI as the competition grew to 120 teams. Nunawading chased down Templestowe's 265 to win the McIntosh Shield in a hard-fought contest, with both sides scoring at less than two runs per over.

1980-81

123 teams entered in 1980-81 with Nunawading becoming the first side to enter seven sides. Blackburn Church of Christ changed their name to Nunawading Church of Christ while Hartwell left the competition. D2 increased to fourteen teams while Bulleen Templestowe fielded a fifth XI including two sides in C2 grade. Of Vermont's five sides, four finished last, but they lost points due to late payment of association fees. On the other hand, Nunawading's top six sides made finals, but only their third XI won a premiership, while Heatherdale became the first club to win four flags in a season, as their top four sides won A1, A2, C1 and C2. Their fifth XI fell 26 runs short of making it five premierships. The McIntosh Shield was won by Box Hill North for the first time in 55 years since they joined as St. Peter's in 1925-26. In B grade, promising young player, Frank Horne took 10-22 for Bennettswood against Yarraleen.

1981-82

The BHRDCA reached its greatest peak yet with 129 teams entered in 1981-82. A3 grade was introduced for second tier clubs third XI's. Koonung Heights joined the competition, bringing five teams with them, while E-Bees changed their name to Eley Park. Nunawading entered an eighth XI, while Blackburn South High School added a sixth XI. Vermont had left the competition after the events of 1980-81 when they had all their points taken from them and they went across to the Ringwood competition. The Len Toogood medal was struck in 1981-82 to award the Best & Fairest player in the McIntosh Shield as determined by the umpires.

Nunawading won their fourth Shield premiership in nine years with a thrilling 3 run win over Heatherdale, and Koonung Heights became the first club to win two flags in their first season in the BHRDCA. The Doncaster Church of Christ won A1 grade and were promoted to McIntosh Shield grade. The news was not so good for Blackburn North who lost almost twenty of their more experienced players to East Box Hill at the start of the season. As a result, all their five teams won the wooden spoon.

1982-83

At the end of 1981-82 there were 129 teams in the BHRDCA, but this dropped to 116 in 1982-83 with the departure of the North East Jewish Centre to ESCA turf, Wattle Park who disbanded and Park Orchards who folded temporarily due to administrative issues. A few clubs also dropped their lowest XI's and as a result D2 grade was removed, although East Box Hill added a fifth XI, due to the influx of players who moved to that club in 1981-82 from Blackburn North who 'won' another three wooden spoons. Heatherdale won their first McIntosh Shield grade premiership over Nunawading and added another two premierships in McIntosh 2nd and C2 grade. Bulleen Templestowe also had an outstanding season winning A1, A2 and A3 grade premierships earning promotion to McIntosh Shield.

1983-84

There was no change to team numbers in 1983-84 with no new clubs or clubs leaving. The only change of note was Doncaster Church of Christ who lost their third XI and as a result was relegated from the McIntosh grades to the B grades. Losing the Cutler and Rogerson families to St. Davids was to prove terminal to the Doncaster Church of Christ. Bulleen Templestowe was promoted to McIntosh Shield for the first time after their three flags in 1982-83.

Nunawading beat Heatherdale by 10 runs to take the McIntosh Shield and in A1 grade Eley Park defeated Blackburn South High School to gain promotion to McIntosh Shield grade.

1984-85

The Blackburn South High School became the second club to field eight sides in 1984-85. They entered a team in every grade below the three Shield grades. The competition lost the Doncaster Church of Christ who folded and McIntosh

Shield club St. Andrews (Presbyterian church in Box Hill) who merged with Box Hill North. It eventuated that only half of the St. Andrew's player group moved across and Box Hill North did not really benefit with many ex-St. Andrews players moving to Blackburn, Eley Park, Koonung Heights or other clubs. As a result, all reference to St. Andrews quickly disappeared with Steve Carusi the only remaining link in 2025. With St. Andrews vacating a spot, Eley Park was promoted to McIntosh Shield grade for the first time. The three A grades were reduced to eight team grades.

In a surprise result, Templestowe won the McIntosh Shield, their first top grade win since 1928-29. Templestowe barely made the finals but convincingly beat Forest Hill in the grand final. Rising power, Bennettswood won the A1, A2 and A3 premierships which included their effort to chase down 407 to defeat Blackburn South in the A1 grade final. Frank Horne posting 198 not out as Blackburn South suffered their third A1 grand final loss in four seasons.

Eley Park's B. Pliatsos made 246 not out in A2 grade to set the new highest senior individual score in the BHRDCA.

1985-86

Both Eley Park and Vermont South grew to seven teams in 1985-86 and it was noted the increase in size of the newer clubs against clubs like East Burwood and Box Hill North who were both down to four teams. After fielding eight teams in each of the three A grades during 1984-85, it was decided to remove the A3 grade and add a D2 grade in 1985-86 for more flexibility. The competition lost Blackburn Districts (f Blackburn YCW) who folded.

After losing the 1984-85 McIntosh Shield grand final, Forest Hill imploded over issues with appointing a coach for 1985-86. As a result, Ken and Bob Parry moved to Mitcham, while the experienced Mann family of John Jnr, David and Jack Snr went across to Vermont South, taking leading all-rounder Hamish Richardson with them.

The McIntosh Shield was won on the last ball of the game, with Heatherdale's last pair scrambling a leg bye to pass Nunawading's score of 342. The Shield 3rd grade was ruled a tied after Mitcham and Forest Hill could not be separated on 307 apiece (the scorebooks did not match). In A1 grade, Vermont South and Blackburn South tied the match on the last ball, with three members of the Mann family involved in the last ball run-out. This was both clubs first A1 grade premiership and they were both promoted to Shield grade.

By the end of 1985-86 Nunawading continued to be the dominant club in the BHRDCA with eight teams and twenty-two grand finals since 1976-77. Over a nine-year period, their top three sides made finals every season except for their second XI in 1981-82. But Heatherdale was challenging with twelve premierships and twenty grand finals since 1977-78, while clubs like Bennettswood, Blackburn South and Eley Park were making their presence felt in the competition.

Top Grade Premierships

The Top Grade is that recognized as the highest level of cricket played in the association during any given season. Since 1890-91, the top level has had seven names with the current title; Ray McIntosh Shield – introduced in 1977-78 in recognition of the long service of Ray McIntosh as a player from 1922 to the mid 1950's (along with an additional ten years in West Gippsland) and as Association Secretary from 1953-54 to 1976-77 (except 1960-61 when Jack Lennox acted in the Secretary's role).

- ❖ In early seasons, fourteen two-day rounds were played, and the season ended in late April. In 1919-20, most teams abandoned the competition after twelve rounds when it became obvious that Ringwood had won the premiership. 1937-38	Box Hill Wattles	Box Hill Hibernians	With Joe Cain making 1072 runs and taking 55 wickets for the season, it would seem a target of 82 runs would be an easy task for the Hibernians, but they collapsed for 37 to hand the Wattles a 44-run victory. A. Lacey took 9-46 for the match, while Ray McIntosh's 35 and 7 wickets in the Wattles' Semi Final win over Blackburn Church of Christ was just as crucial.

BHRDCA Clubs – Name changes, mergers etc

- ✚ Doncaster changed their name to Doncaster Heights in 1891-92 but changed back to Doncaster in 1892-93. It's likely this was a failed merger between Doncaster and Doncaster Heights.
- ✚ Old Mitcham and Mitcham Districts merged in 1905-06 to form Mitcham. This ended a division within the Mitcham cricketing community that had lasted since c.1900 when the two camps traded barbs in the Reporter newspaper and split.
- ✚ During the period 1905 to 1908, clubs such as Mitcham, Canterbury and Surrey Hills also fielded teams in the neighbouring Eastern Districts or Boroondara competitions.
- ✚ Doncaster Ramblers changed their name to East Doncaster in 1912-13
- ✚ Koonung changed their name to West Doncaster in 1913-14
- ✚ Mitcham withdrew after one match in 1913-14. This was attributed to a dispute with the Reporter Football competition.
- ✚ Doncaster fielded two sides in the same section of A grade in 1918-19
- ✚ After winning the 1919-20 A grade premiership, Ringwood joined the newly formed Ringwood District Cricket Association that already included ex BHRDCA clubs, Croydon, Mooroolbark and Wonga Park
- ✚ East Burwood left the Reporter association to join the newly formed Burwood District association in 1922-23
- ✚ Blackburn fielded two sides in separate sections of B Grade in 1923-24 and 1924-25
- ✚ East Doncaster fielded two sides in the same section of B grade in 1922-23 and 1923-24.

Batting – Average Winners and Highest Aggregate

From 1890-91 to 1930-31 batting average winners were determined by using averages printed in the Box Hill Reporter newspaper, or from manually compiling individual player statistics.

All winners from 1931-32 to 1949-50, then from 1958-59 to 1982-83 were recorded in the BHRDCA Annual Reports and only included Home and Away matches. Note that figures stated include Semi Final and Grand Final matches for complete records, but the listed winners remain unchanged as per the association rules surrounding batting and bowling awards. From 1983-84 to 1985-86 winners have been determined on available information.

Where the winner was named, but the bowling details were not published, available figures have been used – this creates instances where averages listed are higher / lower than they were

Batting aggregates are based on available information from club scorebooks, association and club annual reports and newspaper records.

Bowling – Average Winners and Highest Aggregate

From 1890-91 to 1930-31 bowling average winners were determined by using averages printed in the Box Hill Reporter newspaper, or from manually compiling individual player statistics. All winners from 1931-32 to 1949-50, then from 1958-59 to 1982-83 were recorded in the BHRDCA Annual Reports and only included Home and Away matches. Note that figures stated include Semi Final and Grand Final matches for complete records, but the listed winners remain unchanged as per the association rules surrounding batting and bowling awards. From 1983-84 to 1985-86 winners have been determined on available information.

Where the winner was named, but the bowling details were not published, available figures have been used – this creates instances where averages listed are higher / lower than they were

Bowling aggregates are based on available information from club scorebooks, association and club annual reports and newspaper records.
