

BOX HILL REPORTER DISTRICT CRICKET ASSOCIATION (BHRDCA)

CODE OF CONDUCT

As a condition of participation in BHRDCA competitions, all clubs, players, officials, volunteers, parents, spectators and members must comply with this Code of Behaviour and uphold the Spirit of Cricket.

ROLE OF CLUBS

Clubs shall:

- Promote and enforce this Code of Behaviour.
- Exercise care in the selection of captains, coaches and team officials.
- Support captains and officials in maintaining appropriate standards of conduct.
- Take responsibility for the behaviour of their players, members, supporters and spectators.
- Ensure compliance with Cricket Australia Child Safety, Member Protection and Integrity policies.

ROLE OF CAPTAINS

Captains are responsible for:

- Ensuring play is conducted within the Laws and Spirit of Cricket.
- Supporting umpires and respecting their authority.
- Assisting in the efficient and timely conduct of matches.
- Addressing inappropriate behaviour by players immediately.
- Leading by example at all times.

ATTITUDE TOWARDS UMPIRES

- Umpires are in charge of the match and their decisions must be respected.
- Players, officials, parents and spectators must not dispute, argue, ridicule or abuse umpires.
- Dissent, aggressive gestures or negative reactions to decisions are unacceptable.
- Concerns regarding umpiring should be raised through the appropriate club or Association process after the match.

ROLE OF PLAYERS

Players shall:

- Treat opponents, teammates, officials and spectators with respect and courtesy.
- Avoid abusive, offensive, threatening or discriminatory language or behaviour.
- Refrain from sledging, taunting, intimidation or personal criticism.
- Accept both success and disappointment with good sportsmanship.
- Not throw equipment, display excessive anger or engage in retaliatory behaviour.
- Assist captains and umpires in the smooth running of matches.
- Cross on the field when changing batters.
- Be ready to bowl, field and change positions without unnecessary delay.
- Avoid actions that waste time or bring the game into disrepute.
- Not consume alcohol or illegal substances while participating in matches.

COACHES, TEAM MANAGERS & OFFICIALS

Coaches, managers and officials shall:

- Model respectful and positive behaviour.
- Promote player development, wellbeing and enjoyment.
- Prioritise child safety at all times.
- Address inappropriate behaviour by players, parents or spectators promptly.

PARENTS & SPECTATORS

Parents and spectators shall:

- Encourage and support all participants positively.
- Respect supporters, umpires, players, coaches and officials.
- Not coach from the boundary during junior matches unless authorised.
- Not engage in abuse, harassment, intimidation or disruptive behaviour.
- Comply with any reasonable direction from club or Association officials.

SOCIAL MEDIA & DIGITAL CONDUCT

Participants must:

- Adhere to the BHRDCA social Media Policy.
- Use social media responsibly and respectfully.
- Not post content that is abusive, offensive, discriminatory, defamatory or harmful.
- Not target players, officials, clubs, umpires or volunteers online.
- Recognise that online behaviour is subject to the same standards as behaviour at a venue.

GENERAL EXPECTATION

All participants must act in a manner that reflects positively on cricket, their club and the BHRDCA. Any conduct that is contrary to the Spirit of Cricket, brings the game into disrepute, or breaches Association policies may result in disciplinary action under BHRDCA Rules, Regulations and Tribunal Procedures.
